Members of Underrepresented Groups: Reviewers for Journal Manuscripts Wanted

On behalf of Memory & Cognition and Psychonomic Society Publications, I invite you to contact me if you are interested in reviewing manuscripts for Memory & Cognition. Please send a letter and a copy of your curriculum vita to me at the following address: Memory & Cognition, Department of Psychology, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana 47405. The letter or the vita should contain your complete address (including an electronic mail address if one is available), telephone number, and area(s) of expertise. Our reviewers have published articles in peer-reviewer journals, a standard prerequisite for being selected as a reviewer.

Please note that reviewing manuscripts takes time and must be completed quickly. If you are asked to review a manuscript, you will be expected to provide a thorough and prompt review.

Conference on Memory Improvement: Implications for Memory Theory Union College, Schenectady, New York October 18-19, 1990

The second in a series of conferences sponsored by the Union College Department of Psychology, underwritten by the department's Ichabod Spencer Fund and the Pew Foundation, will be held at the college on October 18 and 19, 1990. Union College is located in Schenectady, New York, about 10 miles from Albany, New York.

The conference has been organized by D. Herrmann (NIMH), H. Weingartner (NIMH), A. Searleman (St. Lawrence University), and C. McEvoy (University of South Florida), and is being coordinated by S. Greenberg (Union College) and H. Foley (Union College). The conference will begin with a brief examination of the past approaches to memory improvement. Then a series of lectures will address the effects of different modes of memory improvement: psychopharmacology, emotional state metamemory, strategies, practice, external aids, social interaction, context, and attention. Summary lectures will address the implications of various approaches for a theory of memory improvement and for memory theory in general.

In addition to the organizers, participants will include P. Hertel (Trinity University), C. Hertzog (Georgia Tech.), M. Pressley (University of Maryland), M. Intons-Peterson (Indiana University), D. Best (Wake Forest University), D. Plude (University of Maryland), S. Ceci (Cornell University), D. Payne (SUNY at Binghamton), L. Hasher (Duke University), and R. Zacks (Michigan State University).

For more information about the conference, contact Seth Greenberg (518-370-6259) or Hugh Foley (518-370-6355) at Union College, Schenectady, NY 12308 (E-mail: GREENBES@UNION and FOLEY@UNION). To register for the conference, send a check for $25 (payable to Union College) to Seth Greenberg before September 19, 1990.
