

Forthcoming Articles

The following is a list of forthcoming Memory & Cognition articles that are currently in press. They are given in approximate order of acceptance. Each entry includes the name and address of the author with whom to communicate for further republication information.

- “Visual discovery in mind and on paper” by R.E. Anderson & T. Helstrup (R.E.A., Dept. of Psychology, Memorial Univ., St. John’s, NF, Canada A1B 3X9)
- “On the existence of independent explicit and implicit learning systems: An examination of some evidence” by R.E.A. Green & D.R. Shanks (D.R.S., Dept. of Psychology, Univ. College London, Gower St., London WC1E 6BT, England)
- “Disruption of visual short-term memory by changing-state auditory stimuli: The role of segmentation” by D.M. Jones, W.J. Macken, & A.C. Murray (D.M.J., School of Psychology, Univ. of Wales College of Cardiff, P.O. Box 901, Cardiff CF1 3YG, U.K.)
- “Evidence against a short-term storage account of long-term recency effects” by A. Thapar & R.L. Greene (R.L.G., Dept. of Psychology, Case Western Reserve Univ., Cleveland, OH 44106)
- “On the origin of intermediate effects in clinical case recall” by H.G. Schmidt & H.P. Boshuizen (H.G.S., Dept. of Educational Dev. and Research, University of Limburg, Peter Debyeplein 1, 6229 HA Maastricht, The Netherlands)
- “The use of partial temporal information in dating personal events” by C.P. Thompson, J.J. Skowronski, & A.L. Betz (J.J.S., The Ohio State Univ. at Newark, University Drive, Dept. of Psychology, Newark, OH 43055)
- “Failure to obtain a ‘generation effect’ during naturalistic learning” by M. Carroll & T.O. Nelson (M.C., School of Behavioural Sciences, Macquarie University, Sydney, NSW 2109, Australia)
- “Familiarity, relative distinctiveness, and the generation effect” by Z.F. Peynircioğlu & E. Mungan (Z.F.P., Dept. of Psychology, The American University, Washington, DC 20016)
- “A proto-connectionist theory of memory” by G.V. Jones (Dept. of Psychology, University of Warwick, Coventry CV4 7AL, U.K.)
- “Cognitive representations of functional interactions with objects” by R.L. Klatzky, J. Pellegrino, B.P. McCloskey, & S.J. Lederman (R.L.K., Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of California, Santa Barbara, CA 93106-9660)
- “Knowing but not remembering: Adult age differences in recollective experience” by T. Mantyla (Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of Padova, Via Beato Pellegrino 26, 35137 Padova, Italy)
- “The effect of semantic priming on the detection of letters within words” by T.L. Blum & N.F. Johnson (N.F.J., Dept. of Psychology, The Ohio State Univ., 1885 Neil Ave. Mall, Columbus, OH 43210)
- “Identifying exceptions in a database of recognition failure studies from 1973 to 1992” by L. Nilsson & J.M. Gardiner (L.N., Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of Umeå, S-901 87 Umeå, Sweden)
- “Memory for position and dynamic representations” by M. Bertamini (Dept. of Psychology, Gilmer Hall, Univ. of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA 22903-2477)
- “How apparent motion affects mental rotation: Push or pull?” by P.M. Corballis & M.C. Corballis (P.M.C., Dept. of Psychology, Columbia Univ., Schermerhorn Hall, New York, NY 10027)
- “A case-study of anomaly detection: Shallow semantic processing and cohesion establishment” by S.B. Barton & A.J. Sanford (A.J.S., Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of Glasgow, Glasgow G12 8RT, Scotland)
- “The separability of space and time: Dimensional interaction in the memory trace” by A. Dutta & J.S. Nairne (A.D., Dept. of Psychological Science, Purdue Univ., West Lafayette, IN 47907-1364)
- “Incorporating prior biases in network models of conceptual rule learning” by S. Choi, M.A. McDaniel, & J.R. Busemeyer (S.C., Dept. of Psychological Sciences, Purdue Univ., 1364 Psychological Sciences Bldg., Rm. 3150, West Lafayette, IN 47907-1364)
- “A translation-based generation effect in bilingual recall and recognition” by W. O’Neill, L. Roy, & R. Tremblay (W.O., Departement de Psychologie, Univ. de Moncton, Moncton, NB E1A 3E9, Canada)
- “Declarative and nondeclarative memory in opposition: When prior events influence amnesic patients more than normal subjects” by L.R. Squire & R.D. McKee (L.R.S., Veterans Affairs Med. Ctr. (V116A), La Jolla Village Dr., San Diego, CA 92161)
- “Induction of combination rules in two-dimensional function learning” by K. Koh (Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of Rochester, Rochester, NY 14627)
- “Checklist procedures and the cost of automaticity” by E. Barshi & A.F. Healy (E.B., Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of Colorado, Campus Box 345, Boulder, CO 80309-0345)
- “Evidence for implicit scaling in comparative judgment” by K.M. Sailor & K.M. Pineda (K.M.S., Dept. of Psychology, Lehman College, 250 Bedford Pk. Blvd. W., Bronx, NY 10468-1589)
- “‘That man’s father is my father’s son’: The roles of structure, strategy, and working memory in solving convoluted verbal problems” by P.J. Casey (School of Humanities & Social Sciences, Charles Sturt Univ.-Riverina, P.O. Box 588, Wagga Wagga, NSW 2650, Australia)
- “Why do pictures produce priming on the word fragment completion test?: A study of encoding and retrieval factors” by M.S. Weldon & J.L. Jackson (M.S.W., Dept. of Psychology, Kerr Hall, Univ. of California, Santa Cruz, CA 95064)
- “The influence of manipulated category knowledge on prototype classification and recognition” by D. Homa, B. Goldhardt, L. Burrue-Homa, & J.C. Smith (D.H., Dept. of Psychology, Arizona State Univ., Tempe, AZ 85287)
