

ANNOUNCEMENT

Fifth Annual Boston University Conference on Language Development October 10-12, 1980

The Boston University School of Education announces the Fifth Annual Boston University Conference on Language Development, to be held October 10-12, 1980, at the George Sherman Union, 775 Commonwealth Avenue.

Papers in the areas of first and second language acquisition, bilingualism, reading, writing, sign language, neurolinguistics, sociolinguistic interaction, and language acquisition in deficit populations will be considered for presentation at the conference. The deadline for submission of abstracts is June 1, 1980. To obtain abstract guidelines and information on preregistration and local arrangements, contact: Language Development Conference, Box F, Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts 02215.