Members of Underrepresented Groups: Reviewers for Journal Manuscripts Wanted

If you are interested in reviewing manuscripts for Behavior Research Methods, Instruments, & Computers, the Editor and Psychonomic Society Publications urge you to volunteer, particularly if your area of expertise is underrepresented. Manuscript reviewers are vital to the publication process, and in the reviewing process, reviewers can gain valuable experience in publishing.

To be selected as a reviewer, you must have published in peer-reviewed journals. This prerequisite helps to ensure that the reviewer can produce thorough and objective reviews.

If you are interested in volunteering, please send a letter and a copy of your curriculum vitae to N. John Castellan, Jr., Editor, Behavior Research Methods, Instruments, & Computers, Department of Psychology, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405. He will then mail you a Reviewer Profile form to complete; the information you provide will enable him to send you the appropriate manuscripts.

Reviewing a manuscript takes time and must be completed promptly. If you are sent a manuscript, you must be prepared to review it thoroughly and return it promptly.
