In the original article, Table 1 incorrectly labels substitution types and speaker groups. The correct table is below. The correction does not change the description of the general data pattern or the scientific conclusions of the paper in any way. The authors apologize for the error.

Table 1 Percentages of /θ/-substitutions per speaker group (percentages are rounded up, and numbers of occurrences are in parentheses)

Speaker group	Substitution type
	F	T	S
Dutch	3% (17)	23% (155)	5% (30)
German	5% (34)	7% (43)	29% (187)
English	12% (63)	0% (0)	0.02% (1)
