

Index

- academic reflection
 - vs practical training, in
 - contemporary MBA, 131
 - academic knowledge, 136–7
 - critique of, 131–5
 - design principles, 140–1
 - development of leadership
 - potential in, 141–2
 - experience, 138–40
 - individual development, 137–8
 - re-designing, 135–6
- action learning, 28–9, 62–3, 66, 69
- adult maturation, 67–9
- Advanced Change Theory (ACT), 64
- Aesthesis*, 77
- aesthetic, of leadership presence,
 - 111, 121–5
 - character development, 112–15
 - Pesso-Boyden System
 - Psychomotor, 115–18
 - Structure, 118–21, 128
 - transformative learning, leadership development as, 125–7
- aesthetics, of leadership development,
 - 77
 - definition, 77–8, 82
 - expressive aesthetic, 78–81
 - intrinsic aesthetic, 78, 81–90
 - Agon, 84, 85
 - Alea, 84, 85, 86
 - focus on knowing, 83–4
 - Ilínx, 84, 86
 - intervention, 89–90
 - leadership developers and, 87–8
 - Mimesis, 84, 85–6
 - reflexive inquiry, 88–9
- affirmative action programme, 194
- appreciative inquiry process, 29–30
- arts-based methods, 5, 26, 78–81
- attentiveness, 61
- attunement, 101
- authenticity, 7, 61, 69, 122, 123, 152, 157
- behaviour, 108, 150
 - in body and mind, 116
 - change, 100, 138, 209
 - leadership, 18, 20
- being ‘in the moment’, 6, 111
- benchmarking, 38–9, 45–6, 47
- Bioenergetics, 115, 116
- boundaryless career, 151
- capability, 59
 - associated with engagement, 60–2
 - cognitive, 52
 - dynamic, 36, 37
 - individual, 20, 37–8, 53
 - leadership, 20, 25
 - nested, 52
 - organisational, 36–7
 - see also* external perspective
- career
 - boundaryless, 151
 - conundrum, 207–10
 - development, 182, 183
 - management, 113, 207
 - outcome, 9, 208, 211
 - path, 191
 - placement, 134
 - protean, 151
 - shift see kaleidoscope career model
 - success, 151
 - women’s, 7, 150–3, 158
 - issues, 152
- career success
 - personal conceptions of, 151
- career wobble, 208
- catharsis, 119

- CEO
 denial syndrome, 50 international assignment
 experience, 203
 of public sector organisation, 23
- challenge, 13, 99, 152
 assumptions in talent
 management, 192–3
 extra-industry perspective
 development, 52
 feedback data, 98
 of global environment company, 202 for leadership, 30–2
 for practitioner, 123
- change context, 57–8, 63–4 agenda, 65–7
 emotional reaction to, 57
 motivation for, 64
- character development, 112–15
- Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD), 183
- CIMO (Context, Intervention, Mechanism, Outcome)
 evaluation approach, 170–4
- CIPP model, 170
- CIRO (Context, Input, Reaction, Outcome) evaluation model, 170
- coaching accreditation programmes, 164 executive, 27, 93, 96, 100, 102 as intervention, 5
 for leadership, 99–101, 107
 one-to-one, 27
see also systems psychodynamic approach
- collaborative inquiry process, 4, 29, 63, 67
- collective responsibilities, 19
- Commission for Equality and Human Rights (CEHR), 148
- communication, 89, 101, 104, 194
- competency, 17 developing, 190–2
 for effective performance, 169 global leader, 201, 202, 205, 210
 individual, 190–2, 203
 organisational, 190–2
 technical, 204
- competitive learning organisation, 36
- constructivist approach, 59, 64, 95, 97
- contemporary theorisation, about
 leadership, 17–20
- context, 17, 169–71
 authenticity, model of, 123
 change, 57–8, 59, 61–2
 cultural, 204, 205 of leadership coaching, 99–101 leadership interventions focus on, 27–30 leadership learning and development evaluation, 169–71
 whole-person development and, 25–7, 30
- contextualised activity, leadership as, 17–18
- conventional approach to leadership development, 6
- co-operative inquiry process, 29
- countertransference, 102, 104
- creativity, 85, 95, 106 and humour, 89
 and innovation, 38
- critical management, 6
- critical pedagogy, 6
- cultural perspective, 183
- culture, 7, 60, 106, 194 and environment, 195 goal-oriented, 30
 innovative, 37
 measurement oriented business, 31 of organisation, 8, 64, 151, 157, 167, 189, 196
 workplace, 168
- customised leadership development programmes, 28–9
- decision-making, 94, 101, 165, 192, 206

- deficit model, of leadership
 - development, 15–17, 20–4, 31, 170
 - connecting, 21, 23–4
 - interpreting, 21, 22–3
 - limitations, 16
 - perceiving, 21–2
- delegation, 172
 - effective, 25
- depth methods, 26–7
- developmental perspective, 186
- development path, 191–2
- dialogue, 62, 63, 68, 86
 - connectivity issue in, 67
 - flavour of, 82
 - level of, 67
 - and quality of thinking, 82
 - reflective, 85
- distributed leadership, 19, 94
- diversity management, 154
 - within talent management, 193–5
- dominant approach, to leadership development, 14–15
- dynamic capability, 36, 37

- economic imperative, 202
- effectiveness, 107, 166
 - leadership, 21, 24, 32, 95
 - talent, 193
- efficiency, 166, 182
- emotion, 97
- emotional experience, 96
- emotional intelligence, 61, 62, 65–6, 70, 101, 107, 137, 140
- empirical research, 40
 - employment gap, impact of, 151
- empirical studies, of external perspective, 40–9, 50
- employability perspective, 134
- empowerment, 172, 194
- engagement, 57–70, 101, 210
 - adult maturation, 67–9
 - business view of, 59, 60
 - decision to, 65
 - defined, 58–9
 - inquiry process, 62–3, 69–70
 - psychological view of, 59, 61–2
 - sociological view of, 59, 60–1
- enterprise and organisation, distinction between, 96
- entrepreneurship, 37, 49
- Equal Opportunities Commission, 148
- evaluation, of leadership learning and development
 - importance of, 161
 - Kirkpatrick model
 - behaviour level, 167–8
 - learning level, 167
 - reaction level, 167
 - result level, 168–9
 - return on investment, 168–9
 - opportunities and constraints, 165–7
 - purpose of, 162–5
 - control, 164–5
 - improve, 164
 - learning, 164
 - prove, 163–4
 - realist perspective, 171–4
 - systems approaches to, 169–71
- evaluation practice, 7
- executive coaching, 27, 93, 96, 100, 102
- expatriation
 - assignment, 205
 - career problem, 207–10
 - as developmental tool, 206
 - as global leadership development, 204–6
 - organisational goals in, 205
 - traditional model of, 211
- expatriation experience, 201, 203, 207, 209, 210
- experience, 138–40
 - amount of work, 192
 - in coaching, 101, 102, 104
 - diverse, 44, 52, 53
 - in facilitating leadership development activity, 84–5
 - emotional, 96
 - executive's international, 209

- experience – continued
 - international assignment, 202–3, 208
 - organisation, 13
 - with PBSP Structures, 121
- experiential psychodynamic therapy, 115
- expert, 100, 151, 191
- expressive aesthetic, in leadership
 - development, 5, 78–81
 - essence, 79
 - making, 79–80
 - projective technique, 79
 - skill transfer, 79
- external criteria, career success, 151
- external development programme, 154
- external perspective (EP), 4, 35–53
 - business strategy formulation, demands on, 36
 - development approaches
 - benchmarking, 38–9, 45–6
 - benefits, 46–7
 - diverse experience, 44
 - networking/external events, 39, 45
 - open programmes, 39–40, 46
 - organisational support, 47–9
 - reading, 45
 - researching, 45
 - studying, 45
 - empirical studies, 40–9
 - individual capability, 37–8
 - managers' concept, 41–9
 - organisational capabilities, changing, 36–7
 - organisational importance, 41, 44
- feedback, 15–16, 70, 89, 98, 101, 156, 164, 167
- followership and leadership, distinction between, 18, 95
- gender
 - difference, 194
 - discrimination, denial of, 7, 150, 158
 - imbalance, 149
 - ratio, in MBA, 149
 - see also* men; women
- gendered development, 153
- gendered perspective, 7
- Gestalt counselling, 26, 115, 116
- global leaders, developing, 8–9, 201
 - expatriation see expatriation
 - need for, verifying, 202–3
 - role of, 204
 - skills of, 203–4
 - talent management see talent management
- Great Man (sic) approach, 15
- The 'Great Man on the Horse' theory, of leadership, 112–13
- Group Relations, 28, 94
- hermeneutics, 125
- human resource management (HRM), 8, 182, 193, 202
 - operationalisation of, 184–5
 - see also* talent management
- IBIS survey (2006), 58
- identity, 59, 61, 64, 67
 - gendered, 153, 154
 - managerial, 149
 - organisational, 96, 102, 135
- illustration of essence process, 79
- impression, 189
- improvised performance, 113
- individual capability, 37–8, 40, 53
- individual development, 14, 137–8
- individuation, 113
- Industry Peer Networks (IPN), 39
- innovation, 36–7, 38, 39, 202
- inquiry process, 62–3, 65, 66, 68, 69–70
 - appreciative, 29–30
 - collaborative, 4, 29, 63, 67
 - co-operative, 29
 - reflexive, 83, 88–9
- insecurity, 57, 85
- institution in the mind, 18
- intangible criteria, career success, 151

- intelligence, emotional, 61, 62, 65–6, 70, 101, 107, 137, 140
- internal criteria, career success, 151
- International Arts of Organisation and Management conference, 77
- international assignment experience, 202–3
- international management cadre, 206
- interpretation, 21, 22–3, 25, 31, 85
- intervention, 78
 - coaching as, 5, 100, 107
 - developmental, 81, 93, 169, 209
 - effectiveness, 32
 - leadership development, 3, 13, 14, 20, 79, 161, 174
 - characteristics of, 24–30
 - and role of play, 84–6, 89–90
 - leadership learning, 31
 - measures, 170
 - and mechanisms, 170–1
 - obscuring the impact of, 168
 - types, 27–30
- intrinsic aesthetic, in leadership development, 5, 78, 81–90
 - focus on knowing, 83–4
 - intervention, 89–90
 - leadership developers and, 87–8
 - reflexive inquiry, 88–9
 - role of play, 84–7
 - Agon, 84, 85
 - Alea, 84, 85, 86
 - Ilinx, 84, 86
 - Mimesis, 84, 85–6
- kaleidoscope career model, 152
- Kirkpatrick model, 167–9, 174–5
 - levels of training effectiveness
 - behaviour, 167–8
 - learning, 167
 - reaction, 167
 - result, 168
 - return on investment, 168–9
- labour market, 182–3
- leader
 - global, 201–11
 - individual, 14, 15, 16, 23, 25
 - as organisation coach, 107–8
- leadership at all levels, 19, 94
- leadership developers, 13, 82, 91, 126
 - challenges, 30–2
 - intrinsic aesthetic and, 87–8
 - 'Leadership Lab', 77, 80
 - Leadership Perspectives: Knowledge into Action*, 2, 17
- leadership style, 60
- listening, 60, 62, 89, 122, 155
- management and leadership, distinction between, 95–6
- managers' concept, of external perspective, 41–9
- Master in Business Administration (MBA) programme, 131
 - academic knowledge, 136–7
 - critique of, 131–5
 - designed by men and for men, 148–50
 - design principles, 140–1
 - experience, 138–40
 - individual development, 137–8
 - leadership potential, development of, 141–2
 - re-designing, 135–6
 - women only leadership training, 154–7
- mechanisms
 - to build leaders of future, 205
 - expatriation as, 210
 - feedback, 164
 - informal, 192
 - of knowledge transfer, 204
- men
 - on MBA programme, 148–50
 - in talent management system, 193, 194
 - see also* gender
- Mimesis, 84, 85–6
- motivation, 21
 - changing, 64, 152, 162
 - of individuals, 59
 - inquiry process and, 69
 - intrinsic, 58

- networking, 39, 43, 45
- Neural Linguistic Programming (NLP), 115
- new constructions, of leadership, 19
- non-attachment, 62

- off line learning, 4
- one-to-one coaching, 27, 118
- one-to-one relationship, 67, 100
- open management development programmes, 39–40, 46
- openness, 41, 62, 89, 108, 124
- operational leadership, 17
- organisational capabilities, changing dynamic capability, 37
 - individual capability, 37–8
- organisational culture, 36, 47, 48, 151
- organisation boundary, 18
- organisational countertransference, 96
- organisational support, for EP development, 47–9, 53
- organisation and enterprise, distinction between, 97
- organisation-in-the-mind, 18, 96–9, 103, 106
 - case study, 97–9
 - of client, 101
 - and coaching, 107–8
 - experience of, 96
- outcome
 - career, 9, 208, 211
 - of change activity, 57
 - of depth-oriented approach, 31
 - organisational, 9, 210

- perceiving/perception, 16, 21–2, 24, 41, 91, 111
 - and art-based methods, 26
 - behavioural skills level, 117
 - deficiencies, identifying and remedying, 153
 - difficulties with, 22
 - from experience, 82
 - and external perspective, 36
 - focusing on, 31
 - identifying habits of, 25
 - of managers, 43
 - need for, 22
 - of practitioners, 5
 - sensory, 78
- personal conception, of career success, 151
 - climber category, 151
 - expert and self-realiser category, 151
- perspective, 2, 59, 120, 126
 - academic, 132
 - competitive, 186
 - critical, of good practice, 8
 - developmental, 186
 - of executive development and learning, 162
 - external, 35–53
 - gendered, 7
 - HR planning, 186
 - multiple, 114
 - process, 183
 - relational, 59
 - shift of, 31
 - on talent management, 183–7, 196
- Pesso-Boyden System Psychomotor (PBSP), 115–18
 - aesthetic of, 124
 - Structure, 118–21, 128
 - client's True Scene, development of, 118–19
 - client's Historical Scene, exploration of, 119
 - client Antidote, 119–20
 - New Perspective, creation of, 120–1
 - symbolic representations in, 120
- play, 89
 - and interventions, 89–90
 - and poetic, 86, 88
 - within leadership development interventions, 84–6
- poetic, 86, 88
- policy, 170
- political system, 18
- post heroic leadership, 3, 19–20

- positive development planning, 47 power, 19, 194
 asymmetry of, 133
 and authority, distinction between, 95 of 'making', 80 therapy, 116
 practical training vs academic reflection see academic reflection practice, 35, 49, 80, 125 artistic, 78
 best practice, 39, 45, 149 coaching practice, 100, 164 collective practice leadership, 14 and evaluation, 7–8, 161, 162, 174, 175, 194 of expatriation, 201 good practice, 8, 99
 of HR, 183, 184, 196
 innovative, 39
 intrinsic aesthetic in, 83–4 of leadership, 26 of management, 37, 134, 135
 organisational, 50, 52, 153
 psychoanalytic, 94
 schism between research and, 2 practitioner, 5, 16, 77, 81, 91, 111, 116–17, 119–20 challenge of, 112, 123 demands upon, 123
 enhancing sensitivity of, 78 focus of, 119
 and participants, 89, 140 task of, 118–19
 predominant evaluation approach, 167–9 preferred self, 59
 presence, 6, 80, 111, 126
 authentic, 122
 capabilities associated with, 61 elements to, 122 elements, 122
 in the context of change, 61–2 leadership as aesthetic act of, 121–5 leadership as, 113, 119 as sensory-motor experience, 125 process perspective, 183, 186
 projective technique, 79
 protean career, 151
 psychodynamic approach, 114, 122 for coaching, 5
 on personal and interpersonal dynamics, 6 see also systems psychodynamic approach psychological contract, 182–3 reflected self, 189 reflection, 5, 82, 85, 108, 164, 168 on behaviour, 66

 focus on, 25, 26
 on individual and group experiences, 83 of organisational dynamic, 102, 104 on personal experience, 6 on post-heroic leadership, 3 and regulating emotions, 61 sustained, 84
 see also academic reflection reflective journaling, 88 reflective space, 93, 96, 108
 reflexive inquiry, 83, 88–9
 reflexivity, 85, 88–9, 140 relational dimension, of leadership, 17, 18, 19, 23, 59, 83, 91 relationship, 7, 59, 67, 108, 204 development of, 157 of employment, 183
 impeding and impacting, 106
 importance of, 101, 113
 interpersonal, 116, 171, 172 lateral, 94
 mutually influencing and influenced, 18 with organisational context, 114 to organisation and industry conditions, 41 and performance, 113 quality of, 116
 repatriation, 207, 208–9
 management of, 9, 211

- safety, 65
- scholarship of teaching, 141
- self, 61, 62, 153, 154
 - individual sense of, 66
 - symbolic representations in, 120
 - understanding, 67
- self actualisation, 65, 69
- self awareness, 5, 68, 93, 108, 137
- self-realisers, 151
- sentence completion test (SCT), 67
- serious play, 84
- 'Sex and Power' index, 148
- Sex Discrimination Act (1975), 147
- situation, 79
 - change, 57, 61, 62, 65
 - cross-cultural, 205
 - see also* expatriation
- situational leadership, 15
- skill(s)
 - generic, 21
 - of global leadership, 203–4, 205
 - transfer, 79
- students, 6, 149–50
 - behaviour of, 97
 - see also* academic reflection
- systems psychodynamic approach, 27–8, 93
 - leader as organisation coach, 107–8
 - leadership and followership, 95
 - leadership and management, 95–6
 - in leadership coaching, 101–3
 - case study, 103–7
 - organisation-in-the-mind, 96–9
 - principles, 94
 - view of leadership, 94–5
- systems thinking, 94, 190
- tacit knowledge, 79, 203, 205
- talent management, 8, 181
 - critical view of, 206–7
 - definition, 187–8
 - developing, 190–2
 - diversity management within, 193–5
 - exclusive approach, 188
 - HRM approach to, 184–5, 193
 - implicit assumptions in, 192–3
 - inclusive approach, 188
 - perspective on, 183–7
 - transparency, 188–9
 - see also* human resource management
- Tavistock approach see systems psychodynamic approach
- team leadership, 17
- themes
 - authentic presence in aesthetic performance, 122
 - cross disciplinary input into, 142
 - emerging, 2, 17–20
 - of identity in organisations, 102
 - measuring, 167
 - talent management, 182, 187
 - see also individual themes*
- Transactional Analysis (TA), 115, 116
- transformational leadership, 13, 15–16, 57, 68
- transformative learning, leadership development as, 125–7
- trust, 30, 67, 113, 121, 140, 149
- uncertainty, 36, 57, 104, 112, 115, 139, 208
- values, 7, 44, 47, 53, 99, 132, 134, 152, 157, 192, 208
 - appreciation of, 38
 - concern for, 168
 - creation, 37
 - and differences, 154
 - and evaluations, 163
 - and girls, 153
 - perceived, 35
- vision, 21, 59, 69, 101, 172
 - by community, 30
 - for future, 93, 95
 - providing, 32
- 'whole-person' development, 25–7
 - arts-based methods, 26

- psychological processes, 26–7
- women, 158
 - careers
 - with interruptions for family reason, 150
 - maternity break, 150
 - nature of, 150–3
 - challenges of, 194
 - experienced, 7
- only leadership training as part of MBA, 154–7
 - workshop, 154–6
- only management training, 153–4
- on MBA programme, 149–50
- position in workplace, 147–8
- support from organisation, 151–2
 - issues, 152
- see also* gender