A SHORT GUIDE TO FURTHER READING

The total volume of publications on the history of racism in Europe is vast and any short guide is bound to be highly selective. The works listed below provide some direction for anyone wishing to pursue in more detail any aspect of the broad field covered in this study. The reading has been divided into seven sub-categories. There are a number of journals that specialize on issues of racism and ethnicity in which the reader can find up-to-date articles and reviews: the most useful is the Journal of Ethnic and Racial Studies (prior to 1998, New Community), Race and Class, Patterns of Prejudice, International Migration, Nationalism and Ethnic Politics, Diaspora, European Race Bulletin (Institute of Race Relations), Migration News Sheet. For those who read French, Migrations Société, Revue Européenne des Migrations Internationales, and Homme et Migrations.
