

I

Index

A

Advertising, 91

B

Background checks, 172

Billboards, 143, 153

Blogs, 172

Bumper stickers, 141

Business cards, 105, 133

C

Campaign advisory, 90

Campaign calendar creation, 83–87

Campaign consultants, 172

Campaign funds

amount to be spent, 116–117

asking for financial support, 129

creating a budget, 118–119

expenditure, 118–119

fund raising tools

automated telephone calls/robocalls, 126

donation boxes, 128

email, 125

envelopes, 124–125

house parties and round-ups, 126–127

in-kind contribution form, 127–128

letters, 122–124

social media, 126

using webpage, 126

fundraising chair, 117

fundraising momentum, 119–120

hard money, 121

in-kind contributions, 121–122

soft money, 121

strategies and limits, 129–130

Campaign literature accessible message, 132–133

billboards, 143

bumper stickers, 141

business cards, 133

candidate information cards, 134–135

control over campaign message, 146

doorhangers, 136

endorsements, 146–147

framing clear keypoints, 132

fundraising letter mailings, 140

giveaways, 141

letter mailings, 139

postcard mailings, 136–139

posters, 141

sample candidate card content, 147–149

T-shirts and clothing, 142

- Campaign literature (continued)
 - unique message vehicles, 144–145
 - using Web as research tool, 172
 - Websites and social media, 142
 - without campaign literature, 149–150
 - yard signs, 143
- Campaign manager tasks, 88–89
- Campaign media, 173
- Campaign message, 95
 - base voters
 - identifying people, 100
 - reaching voters via outreach venues, modes, and channels, 100–101
 - business cards, 105
 - candidate surveys, 107–111
 - doorhangers, 101–103
 - examples, 95–96
 - flyers, 104–105
 - honesty, 106
 - issue management, 111
 - opponents, 111–112
 - platform
 - conservative platform, 98
 - liberal platform, 98
 - political actions, 97–98
 - political values, 97
 - polling, 112–113
 - publishing position pieces, 106–107
 - specific and passionate messaging, 98–99
 - without campaign message, 113–114
- Campaign plans
 - campaign manager tasks, 88–89
 - campaign team, 89
 - candidate, 89
 - chair/co-chairs, 89
 - committees, 90
 - fundraising chair, 89
 - information management director, 90
 - manager, 89
 - messaging/marketing/advertising director, 89
 - office manager, 90
 - treasurer, 89
 - creating campaign calendar, 83–87
 - decision making, 73
 - election districts, 74
 - finding volunteers, 93
 - flexibility, 73
 - fundraising events, 74
 - losing race, 94
 - participation, 75
 - recruitment of volunteers, 74
 - scheduling, 73
 - strategic plan, 75
 - campaign outcome/goal, 77
 - campaign tone, 82
 - goal-support objectives, 77
 - key campaign message, 77
 - personnel, 82
 - primary campaign platform (see Primary campaign platform)
 - targeted voters, 79–80
 - targeting voters, 75–77
 - voting ballot, strategies and tactics, 80
 - winning strategies and tactics, 80–82
 - voter's coverage, 74
 - voter's expectation, 74
 - winning vote count, 74
- Campaign plans/political strategies, 173
- Campaign schools, 173
- Campaign supplies, 173
- Campaign team
 - candidate, 89
 - chair/co-chairs, 89
 - committees, 90
 - advertising, 91
 - campaign advisory, 90
 - candidate events, 91
 - collateral material production, 91
 - debate and forum preparation, 91

- endorser and supporter
 - recruitment, 92
 - fundraising events, 90
 - marketing, 91
 - newsletters/email, 91
 - parades, fairs, and trade shows, 91
 - policy advisory and candidate
 - survey review, 90
 - press conference, 91
 - research and policy, 90
 - social media/blogs, 91
 - special audience, 92
 - video production, 91
 - volunteer coordination, 92
 - website, 91
 - fundraising chair, 89
 - information management
 - director, 90
 - manager, 89
 - messaging/marketing/advertising
 - director, 89
 - office manager, 90
 - treasurer, 89
 - Campaign tone, 82
 - Candidate events, 91
 - Candidate information cards, 134–135
 - Candidate surveys, 107–111
 - Collateral material production, 91
 - Committees
 - advertising, 91
 - campaign advisory, 90
 - candidate events, 91
 - collateral material production, 91
 - debate and forum preparation, 91
 - endorser and supporter
 - recruitment, 92
 - fundraising events, 90
 - marketing, 91
 - newsletters/email, 91
 - parades, fairs, and trade shows, 91
 - policy advisory and candidate
 - survey review, 90
 - press conference, 91
 - research and policy, 90
 - social media/blogs, 91
 - special audience, 92
 - video production, 91
 - volunteer coordination, 92
 - website, 91
 - Competitors' campaign Websites, 173
 - Conservative philosophies, 56
 - Conservative platform, 98
 - Court documents, 173
- ## D
- Debate, 182–183
 - Debate and forum preparation, 91
 - Decisiveness, 11
 - Delegation, 201
 - Democratic party, 49
 - District and state positions, 37–39
 - Document handling, 201
 - Doorhangers, 101–103, 136
 - Door-to-door campaigning, 184–186
 - Dressings, 175–178
- ## E
- Education, 77–78
 - Election office(s), 173
 - Email, 169–171
 - Empathy, 12
 - Endorser and supporter
 - recruitment, 92
 - Entrepreneurial economic
 - development, 78
- ## F, G
- Facebook, 168
 - Face-to-face campaign, 175
 - door-to-door campaigning, 184–186

- Face-to-face campaign (continued)
 - dressings, 175–178
 - fair/event circuit, 183
 - fundraising and meet-the-candidate circuit, 184
 - last week of campaign, 189–190
 - on-the-spot meetings, 186–187
 - participating in debate, 182–183
 - personality and intelligence, 178–179
 - recovering from mistakes, 188
 - responding to attacks, 187–188
 - sparring with opponents, 187
 - speech, 181–182
 - volunteer's role, 188–189
 - without facing crowd, 190
 - working rooms, 179–181
 - Fair/event circuit, 183
 - Filing and reporting rules
 - campaign team selection, 69, 70
 - candidacy announcing, 70, 72
 - election office location, 66
 - legalities
 - ethics, 68
 - filings, 67
 - giveaways, 67
 - handling monies, 67
 - information disclosure, 67
 - residency requirements, 66
 - sunshine laws, 68, 69
 - multiple-step filing process, 64, 65
 - one-step filing process, 64
 - treasurer selection, 64
 - Flyers, 104–105
 - Full-time positions, 43
 - Fund raising tools
 - automated telephone calls/robocalls, 126
 - donation boxes, 128
 - email, 125
 - envelopes, 124–125
 - house parties and round-ups, 126–127
 - in-kind contribution form, 127–128
 - letters, 122–124
 - social media, 126
 - using webpage, 126
 - Fundraising and meet-the-candidate circuit, 184
 - Fundraising events, 90
 - Fundraising letter mailings, 140
- ## H
- Hard money, 121, 173
 - Honesty, 11
 - Human interaction and management skills, 7
- ## I, J
- Information management director, 90
 - In-kind contributions, 121–122, 173
 - Intelligence, 8
 - Interpersonal communication, 173
 - Issue management, 111
- ## K
- Knowledge, 8
- ## L
- Letter mailings, 139
 - Letters, 151–152
 - Liberal platform, 98
 - LinkedIn networking sites, 168–169
 - Listening skills, 9
 - Local positions, 35–36
 - Losing election
 - cleaning up and closing campaign, 210–211
 - gearing up to run again, 208
 - hindsight review, 207–208
 - overcoming frustrations, 205–206
 - questioning oneself, 209–210 recovery time, 208–209 volunteers and donors, contact with, 211

Losing race, 94

M

Magazine advertising, 153

Marketing, 91

Media coverage, 161–162

Media reality, 162

Meeting protocols, 196

Messaging/marketing/advertising
director, 89

Multiple-step filing process, 64, 65

N

Newsletters/email, 91

Newspaper advertising, 153, 154

Non-partisan, 51, 60, 61

O

Office manager, 90

One-step filing process, 64

Online and social media tools creating Website, 166–167
Facebook, 168
joining LinkedIn and other networking sites, 168–169
Twitter, 168
using email, 169–171
using social media, 167–168
using Web as research tool, 172–174
without social media, 171–172

On-the-spot meetings, 186–187

P

Parades, fairs, and trade shows, 91

Partisan, 51

Partisan positions, 52

Part-time elected offices, 200–201

Part-time positions, 43

Party affiliation, 52, 58
cons, 59, 60
deliberative process, 52
hypothetical statements, 53, 54 party declaration, 53
pros, 58, 59

Party dominance, 50

Party fundraising expectations, 197

Party members, 50

Passion and office, 15 enjoyable position selection, 24, 25 match-up quiz, 18 arena of concern, 20, 23
arena of interest, 20, 22 commitment, 19
length of service, 20, 23 level of service, 19, 21, 22
party affiliation, 20, 23, 24
public school education, 19 skills, 21, 24
stamina and endurance, 25 act of shaking hands, 27, 28 beverages, 26 car driving, 27
food preference, 26 personal aspects, 16–18 reasons for running, 28, 30 routine exercise, 27 shoes, 27
sleep duration, 26
starting position, 24

Perseverance, 12

Personal life of winning official, 199–200

Personality and intelligence, 178–179

Policy advisory and candidate survey review, 90

Political actions, 97–98

Political fundraising, 174

Political messaging, 174

- Political moderate philosophies, 56
 - Political parties, 51
 - USA, 54
 - conservative philosophies, 57
 - Issue-driven parties, 57
 - liberal philosophies, 56
 - nationally active party, 55
 - Political Independents, 57
 - political moderate philosophies, 56
 - presidential candidates, 54, 55
 - registered political parties, 58
 - using Web as a research tool, 174
 - Political position statements, 174
 - Political values, 97
 - Politics and political maneuvering, 197
 - Polling, 112–113, 174
 - Position picking, 45, 47
 - area of interest, 40–42
 - branch, 39, 40
 - district and state positions
 - Assessor, 37
 - Auditorium board, 38
 - college board, 37
 - commissioner, 37
 - district attorney, 37
 - governor, 38
 - judge/magistrate, 37
 - legislator, 38
 - Lieutenant governor, 38
 - marine board, 38
 - medical examiner, 37
 - school board, 37
 - secretary of state, 38
 - Sheriff (County), 37
 - state attorney general, 39
 - state superintendent of education, 38
 - elected office, 32
 - good aspects, 32
 - name-calling, 34
 - neutral aspects, 33
 - not-so-good aspects, 33
 - phone calls, email and letters, 34
 - safety monitoring, 34, 35
 - election cycle and length of cycle, 44, 45
 - federal positions, 39
 - full-time positions, 43
 - local positions, 36
 - part-time positions, 43
 - Postcard mailings, 136–139
 - Postcards, 151–152
 - Posters, 141, 153
 - Press conferences, 91, 152
 - Press releases, 156–160
 - Primary campaign platform, 77
 - education, 77–78
 - entrepreneurial economic development, 78
 - state services, 79
 - Problem-solving skills, 9
 - Public information and public record, 198
- ## Q
- Questioning skills, 10
- ## R
- Radio advertising, 152
 - Reading skills, 9
 - Republican Party, 49
 - Research skills, 10
 - Run for office, 213
 - after election
 - decision criteria, 213–215
 - gearing up to run again, 217
 - passionate to hold an elected office again, 215–217
 - purging the urge, 217–218
 - family business, 6
 - future aspects, 2–4
 - money, power, and fame, 7
 - opportunity, 2

people characteristics, 7 backbone, 10
 decisiveness, 12
 empathy, 12
 honesty, 11
 human interaction and management skills, 7 intelligence, 8
 knowledge, 8
 listening skills, 10
 perseverance, 12
 problem-solving skills, 9
 questioning skills, 10
 reading skills, 9
 research skills, 10
 speaking skills, 9
 stamina, 11
 political parties, 13
 public servants, America, 4 public service, 6

S

Social media/blogs, 91
 Soft money, 121, 173
 Speaking skills, 9
 Special audience, 92
 Speech, 181–182
 Staff, 198
 Stamina, 11
 State services, 79
 Strategic plan, 75
 campaign outcome/goal, 77
 campaign tone, 82
 goal-support objectives, 77
 key campaign message, 77
 personnel, 82
 primary campaign platform, 77
 education, 77–78
 entrepreneurial economic development, 78
 State Services, 79
 targeted voters, 79–80
 targeting voters, 75–77

voting ballot strategies and tactics, 80
 winning strategies and tactics,
 80–82

Strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threat analysis (SWOT), 75
 Sunshine Laws, 68, 69
 SWOT. See Strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threat analysis
 (SWOT)

T, U

Television advertising, 152, 154
 Time management, 201
 Town hall meetings, 152
 Traditional campaign media, 151 billboards and posters, 153
 letters, 151–152
 magazine advertising, 153
 media coverage, 161–162
 media reality, 162
 newspaper advertising, 153, 154
 postcards, 151–152
 preparing to present oneself and message for media, 162–163
 press conferences, 152
 press releases, 156–160
 radio advertising, 152
 relationship with reporters, 155 science of campaigning, 154–155 television advertising, 152, 154
 town hall meetings, 152
 without media plan, 163
 yard signs, 153–154
 Twitter, 168

V

Video production, 91
 Volunteers, 93
 coordination, 92 and donors, contact with, 204, 211 role, 188–189

W, X

Websites and social media, 91, 142

Winning election

activities

calendars, 194–195

codes and covenants, 196

committee assignments, 195

endorsements, 195

hours, 195–196

interacting face-to-face with people, 197

laws, policies and procedures, 196

learning new things daily, 196

meeting protocols, 196

meetings, 196

paperwork, 197

parliamentary procedure, 196

party fundraising expectations, 197

politics and political maneuvering, 197

public information and public record, 198

reading information, 198

rules and regulations, 196

voting, 198–199

associations and other information sources, 203–204

being in contact with campaign volunteers and donors, 204 building skills on campaign trail, 203

part-time elected offices, 200–201

personal life, 199–200

promises, 202

responsibilities as an elected office, 193–194

working with new staff, 201–202

Work management, 201

Working rooms, 179–181

Y, Z

Yard signs, 143, 153–154