

Index

A

- Adam Smith's principle, 154
- African Red Slip (ARS), 202
- Agency-oriented winegrowing specialization
 - production model, 153–156
- Agent-based modelling (ABM), 230
 - animal husbandry, 113, 116, 117
 - arable extensification and intensification, 115–116
 - arable farming, 112–113
 - experiments, 114
 - initialization, 110–111
 - land use in reconstructed landscapes, 118–120
 - macro-regional supply network, 119, 121, 122
 - micro-regional supply network, 119, 121, 122
 - population dynamics, 111–112
 - ROMFARMS, 109
 - surplus debate, 110
 - surplus production, 117, 118
 - wood collection, 113, 114
- Age specific fertility rate (ASFR), 46
- Age-structured populations, 153
- Agricultural economy, 110
- Agricultural exploitation, 66
- Agricultural intensification
 - Boserup's model, 152–153
- Agricultural populations, 66
- Agricultural revolution, 66
- Agriculture
 - analysis, 123
 - land and labour costs, 109
 - landscapes reconstruction, 117
- Agro-ecological and agro-economic endowments
 - palaeoclimatic conditions, 135
 - physical environment, 135, 136
 - territorial/farming plot scale, 135
 - viticulture supply chain, 136
 - winegrowing production systems, 134
 - yield quantification (see Yield quantification)
- Agro-economic pattern, 153
- Agroecosystem, 150, 152, 153, 158
- Alsace Bossue, 84
- Alveus/goblet technique, 155
- Amphorae, 144
- Ancient historians, 95
- Ancient viticulture, 130, 133, 134, 151, 152, 157
- Animal bones, provincial sites, 102
- Animal husbandry, 113
 - exploitation strategies, 113
 - livestock species, 113
 - products, 113
 - in randomly-generated landscapes, 116, 117
- Antiquity, 96, 130
- Antiquity's place, 96
- Antonine Plague, 15, 29, 34, 102
- Aoristic analysis, 168
- Arable extensification and intensification
 - cost-effectiveness, 116
 - limiting factors, 115
- Arable farming, 112–113
- ArcGIS Pro 10.2.1, 172
- Archaeological excavation
 - vs. survey data, 82–86
- Archaeologists, 63

- Archaeology, 1, 8
 - affordances and movement potential, 218–219
 - algorithms, 238
 - calculating routes and movement potential
 - LCPs and corridors, 229–230
 - movement potential, 230–231
 - control, 223
 - GIS, 217
 - infrastructure, 222–223
 - methodological issues
 - model complexity, 238–239
 - validation, pathway models, 238
 - modelling ancient movement
 - applications, path modelling, 225
 - defining movement capability, 226–227
 - DEMs, 227
 - GIS-based modelling, 226
 - LCPs, 225
 - modelling socio-cultural costs, 229
 - settlement's environment, 225
 - terrain costs, 228
 - visibility, movement cost, 228
 - movement capability
 - energy/speed, 219
 - transport modes, 220–221
 - movement networks and pathways, 217
 - natural environment, 221–222
 - navigation, 224–225
 - network (re)construction techniques, 234–236
 - network analysis techniques, 233, 234, 236–237
 - pathways, 233
 - safety, 223
 - sensitivity analysis and validation, 231–233
 - social interpretation, 240
 - social network analysis, 233
 - software, 237
 - technological integration, 240
 - theoretical issues
 - movement practices, 239
 - understanding networks, 240
 - value of experimental data, 239
 - Archaeology Data Service (ADS), 62
 - Area-floodbasin, 111
 - Area-levee, 111
 - Artisan activities, 145, 150
 - Attractors, 193
 - Autarchic self-sufficient system, 155
 - Average cost (AC), 139
 - Average cost per unit, 138, 139
 - Average fixed costs (AFC), 140
 - Average total costs (ATC), 140
 - Average variable cost (AVC), 140
- B
- Baseline model, 167
 - Batavians, 6, 10, 13, 14
 - Bayesian Inference Procedure, 29
 - Berry's geographical information matrix, 81
 - Binomial logistic regression, 264
 - Birth control
 - strategies, 56
 - Birth rates, 28
 - Black Death, 100
 - Bob Allen's analysis, 102
 - Border populations
 - features, 31
 - foreigners, 32
 - guards, 33
 - Boserup's model
 - population growth and agricultural intensification, 152–153
 - Boserupian pushing force, 154
 - Bronze Age, 62, 63, 66, 69
- C
- Cambridge economic history, 97
 - Cellae vinariae*, 145
 - Civil settlements, 168
 - Colonization, 7
 - Conceptual framework, land and farming system, 134
 - Consumer expenditure, 103
 - Contagious diseases, 36
 - Cost quantification
 - AC and MC, 139
 - ACT, 140
 - AFC, 140
 - ATC, 140
 - AVC, 140
 - average cost per unit, 138, 139
 - direct costs, 138
 - fixed resources, 139
 - indirect costs, 138
 - long-term production costs, 140
 - principle of economic scarcity, 141
 - sestertius, 138
 - structure, economic activity, 138
 - TC, 140
 - TFC, 140
 - TVC, 140
 - Cost-effectiveness, 116
 - Crop-share leased vineyard, 148

D

- Dachstein site, 79
- Demography, 97–99
 - age-sex distributions, 24
 - archaeological, 25
 - biological uniformity, 25
 - birth control, 45, 47–48
 - border populations (see Border populations)
 - contributions, 26
 - data sets, 44–45
 - diseases, 56
 - environmental crises, 33–35
 - faltering recovery, 35, 36
 - fertility, 27–28
 - geographical and chronological fluctuation, 63–64
 - laws, 24
 - marriage pool, 47
 - migration (see Migration)
 - military camps, 27
 - military landscapes, 65
 - mortality, 28–29
 - NetLogo environment, 56
 - NRR, 45
 - parameters, 25
 - population dynamics, 45, 47, 56
 - population growth rates, 44
 - population size and structures, 26, 27
 - pre-industrial populations, 24, 29
 - province of Britannia, 69
 - river valleys, 65
 - rural populations, 63
 - sex ratio, 32–33
 - stopping behaviour, 47
 - transition, 28
 - urban populations, 63
 - z-scores, 65, 70
- Depopulation, 51
- Differential/kicking element, 193
- Digital elevation model (DEMs), 227–228
- Dutch limes
 - agent-based modelling (see Agent-based modelling)
- Dutch Roman archeology
 - surplus debate in, 110
- Dutch territory, 7

E

- Early medieval periods, 65
- Economic analysis
 - antiquity, 96
 - antiquity's place, 96

- archaeological data, 97
- demography, 97–99
- estimating population numbers, 97–99
- Greco-Roman society, 95
- methodologically, 96
- neo-Marxist thought, 96
- population growth and wealth, 103, 104
- population increase, 100–103
- post-colonial discourse, 96
- pre-Roman society, 96
- scarce goods and services, 95
- and society of Pompeii, 96
- standard of living, 96
- statistical analysis, 97
- theoretical and methodological, 96
- Economic models
 - agency-oriented winegrowing specialization production model, 153–156
 - Boserup's model, 152–153
 - "Roman Villa" system, 149–152
 - taxes-and-trade model, 156–157
- Economic scarcity principle, 141
- Economic theory, 157
- Economies of scale, 141, 142
- Emigration, 50
- Endogenous and exogenous agents, 130
- Endogenous and exogenous factors, 144
- England
 - economy
 - and landscape change, 65
 - cultivation, 66
 - floods and alluviation, 66
 - settlement patterns, 66
 - villa* creation, 66
 - EngLaId database
 - categories, 62
 - coins to weapons, 62
 - spatial bins, 62
 - spatial scale, 62
 - EngLaId periods, 69
 - EngLaId project, 63, 68
 - EngLaId team
 - proxy models, 70
 - English landscape, 72, 73
 - erosion susceptibility, 67, 68
 - GIS, 68
 - HE'S, 63
 - HER records, 69
 - transportation
 - A1 road, 70
 - Britannia, 70
 - Cambridgeshire, 72
 - Northamptonshire, 72

Environmental crises
 food shortage, 34
 infectious diseases, 34 population decrease, 34
 population growth, 34
 volcanic eruptions, 34
 Epidemiological transition, 24

F

Fertility reduction, 54
 Fertility regime, 55
 Field surveys
 advantages, 79
 ancient societies, 82
 application, 85
 building materials, 79
 characteristics, 79
 date of appearance, 79
 date of disappearance, 79
 duration of existence, 79 and excavation, 79, 80 history of settlement, 79
 linear signal, 79
 regional settlement, 90
 settlement pattern, 87
 Snap entities, 79
 Span entities, 79
 stratigraphic information, 79 study of settlement patterns analysing sets, 81
 duration of occupation descriptor, 81 making comparisons and associations, 81
 optimal state, 81 settlement network, 81
 spatiotemporal analysis, 81
 spatiotemporal dynamics, 80 temporal dynamics, 80
 three-dimensional cube, 81
 time-consuming, 80
 treating temporal data, 81 typology, 81
 working quantitatively, 81
 Flavian period, 12
 Flood-basin, 111
 Food consumption trends, 102
 Foodstuffs, 147
 Forensic medicine, 26
 Freedmen, 130

G

Gabriel graph, 258
 Gallo-Roman period, 29

Geographical space civitates, 2
 fluvial landforms, 3
limes zone, 2, 3, 12
 Geography of vineyards, 144
 Geospatial and geoeconomic analysis, 130
 Germanic territory, 5
 Germanic tribes, 6, 51
 Germany, 2
 GIS least-cost path algorithm, 206
 GIS-based spatial analysis, 199
 Greco-Roman society, 95
 Gross reproduction rate (GRR), 46

H

Head-trained and spur-pruned training system, 155
 Heckscher-Ohlin-Samuelson economic model, 154
 Hierarchic levels, 202
 Hill's index, 87–89
 Hispania Citerior, 150, 273
 Historic England (HE), 62, 63
 Historic Environment Records (HERs), 62
 Hop-o'-My-Thumb, 193
 Horse-breeding, 117
 Human reproduction
 birth control, 53
 kinship relations, 53
 marriage strategies, 52–53
 mortality crises, 53
 Human-land ratios, 153
 Hydrological processes, 66
 Hypotheses, 261

I

Increased efficiency, 101
 Independent variables
 landforms, 174
 MP, 174–176, 178–180
 PCA, 174
 PCs, 174
 Intensive/specialised winegrowing production processes, see Laetanian Roman wine Interventient agents, 143
 Investigation method, 78
 Iron Age, 6, 8, 10, 65, 66, 70

J

Juvenility index, 28

K

Kernel Density Estimate (KDE), 64
Kolmogorov-Smirnov (K-S) test, 172

L

Laetian Roman wine agroecological and agroeconomic endowments (see Agro-ecological and agro-economic endowments) archaeological dataset, 144–146
 archaeological excavations, 143
 conceptual framework, 134 connectivity, 147–149
 consumption, 143
 economic models (see Economic models)
 endogenous and exogenous agents, 130
 endogenous and exogenous factors, 144
 field-surveys, 143
 food supplies, 143
 geospatial and geoeconomic analysis, 130
 global structure of settlement, 130 hypothesis operative, 133, 134
 working, 133
 interventive agents, 143 labour division, 144 land tenure, 146, 147
 land use, 146, 147
 maintenance and self-consumption, 142 ownership management, 146, 147
 population growth, 130
 population mobility, 130
 production, 130
 quantitative and qualitative analyses, 142
 Roman agronomists, 143
 taxation, 147–149
 territorial scope, 131, 132 transport infrastructures, 147–149 typology of rural settlements, 143
 urban and rural world, 142
 viticulture, 130
 workforce availability, 144
Land-based transport modes, 256
Land/labour ratio, 101
Land use
 in reconstructed landscapes, 118–120
Landform classification system, 170
Landforms, 174
Landscape archaeology models, 64
Landscape-type, 111
Large establishments, 145
Least-cost path (LCP) modelling, 225, 255

Life expectancy, 27, 28, 50
Linear signal, 79, 80
Living standards, 96, 100–104
Local-scale transport infrastructure, 256
Location analysis, 166, 167, 184
Logistic regression, 264
Logistic regression analysis, 172, 173, 183
Logistic regression models, 178
Lower Rhine frontier, 166, 167, 184

M

Macro-regional supply network, 119, 121, 122
MADO, 302, 303
Marginal cost (MC), 139, 140
Marital fertility, 46
Market exchange, 166
Market potential (MP), 172, 174–176, 178–181
Market production, 167
Marriage migrations, 33
Marriage strategies
 age, 54
 first marriage, 52, 53
 restrictions, 56
 Swedish, 54
 Taiwanese, 54
 time span, 54
Medieval periods, 2, 66, 70, 72
Medieval successors, 63
Medium establishments, 145
Mercator-e project, 278
Micro-regional supply network, 119, 121, 122
Micro-regions, Plateau Lorrain, 82–83
Midden-Delfland landscape, 13, 15
Middle Ages, 2 Migration, 25
 behaviours, 36
 conquest, 30
 deportation, 30
 destruction of harvests, 30 forced migration, 30 infiltration, 30
 mass migration, 30
 mobility, 30
 permanent residence, 30
 poor cousin, 29
Military garrisons, 33
Modelling settlement networks, 81
 spatial dynamics, 90
Modern period, 2
Monte Carlo method approach, 264
Monte Carlo simulation, 168

- Mortality
 empirical data, 44
 epidemics, 48
 fertility schedule, 46
 life tables, 45 patterns, 44
 true fertility, 46
 warfare, 49
 Woods South 25, 55
- Multi-criteria analysis (MCA), 229
- Multivariate analysis
 rural marketing
 dependent variable, 173
 independent variables (see Independent variables)
 Late Iron Age, 178
 logistic regression analysis, 172
 logistic regression models, 178
 MP, 172
 postdictive, baseline model, 172
 RMSEs, 173, 178, 179
- Multivariate approach, 263–264
- Multivariate logistic regression model, 167
- N
- Neolithic period, 66
- The Netherlands
 geographical space (see Geographical space)
 research history (see Research history)
- Net reproduction rate (NRR), 45, 46
- NetLogo's inbuilt BehaviourSpace function, 114
- Network analysis, 205–208
 ancient sources and archaeological materials, 272 communication and transport infrastructures, 272 development, technologies, 272 elements, 271
 infrastructures, 272
 Mercator-e project, 272
 methodological approaches, 271 methodology
 connectivity, 277–279
 historical transport roads, 276
 Roman transport networks, 273 trade, 272
 transport time costs and financial expenses
 Geographic Information Systems and Network Analysis, 280
 Guadalquivir River, 284, 285
 Iberian Peninsula, 281, 283, 285
 land transport, 282
 maritime transport, 280
 performance of, 282
 Pyrenees, 284
 Roman transport network, 280, 283
 transcendental elements, 280 transport characteristics, 283
 transportation costs, 282, 284, 285
- Network science, 252, 255
- O
- Ombrone System
 analysis, 201
 ARS, 202
 distribution, 203 economic, 202
 navigability, 202, 203
 pottery imports, 203–205
 production waste, 202
 quantitative data, 201
- Ombrone valley, 205, 206, 208
- P
- Palaeoclimatic conditions, 135
- Palaeogeographic analysis approaches
 archaeological data, 266
 computational approaches, 266
 Dutch limes, 251–253
 higher-status stone-built settlements, 265 natural and social environment, 265 natural palaeogeography, 253–255
 network analysis, 266
 Roman limes, 251
 transport networks and settlement location, 252
- Palaeogeographic reconstruction, 118
- Palaeogeography, 168
- Patrol route, 31
- Physical environment, 135, 136
- Pompeii society, 96
- Population dynamics, 23, 25, 111–112
- Population growth, 130
 Boserup's model, 152–153
- Population increase, 100–103
- Population mobility, 130
- Population pressure, 100, 152, 153
- Population pyramid, 24, 27
- Portable Antiquities Scheme (PAS), 62
- Post-depositional processes, 78
- Postdictive, baseline model, 172
- Prehistoric populations, 44
- Premodern period, 44
- Principal component analysis (PCA), 174
- Principal components (PCs), 174

Q

Quantitative data, 88
 Quantitative methods, 130

R

Rainfall erosivity, 68
 Rank-size classification, 192
 Reproductive behaviours, 27
 Research history
 Cananefatian area, 4 coins, 8
 colonization, 7
 end of the Dutch limes, 8 extensive excavations, 4 frontier zone, 6
 Roman castellum, 4
 Roman Empire integration, 7
 Roman involvement, 5 shipwrecks, 4
 substantial erosion, 4
 Vecht River, 5
 Roman agronomists, 143
 Roman archaeology, 72
 Roman demography, see Demography
 Roman Empire, 97, 98, 101, 103
 Roman monetary unit, 138 Roman period
 demography (see Demography)
 Roman pottery, 193, 202–205, 208–210
 Roman road system ancient infrastructures, 292 ancient mobility, 294 ancient routes, 293 cost factors, 296
 digital environment, 296
 friction models
 Aquae Flaviae, 300, 301
 interpretations, 300
 LCP-based approaches, 298
 mansio Caladunum, 301
 multiple potential pathways, 298 friction surface, 295
 geographical and archaeological contexts, 293
 GIS-based digital modelling tools, 293 heterogeneity, 292
 human movement, 293
 hypotheses, 295
 Iberia, 292
 LiDAR technology, 293
 MADO, 304–307
 multiple discrete optimal connections, 304
 network friction, 294

NW Iberian Peninsula, 297–298
 predictive and postdictive modelling, 296 predictive/postdictive approaches, 293 regional landscape, 295
 Roman and Medieval routes, 294
 Roman and Medieval settlements, 294 single least-cost path model, 302–304
 “Roman Villa” system, 149–152
 ROMFARMS, 57
 animal husbandry, 113, 116, 117
 arable farming, 112–113
 experiments, 114
 initialization, 110–111
 land use in reconstructed landscapes, 118–120
 macro-regional supply network, 119, 121, 122
 micro-regional supply network, 119, 121, 122
 population dynamics, 111–112
 surplus production, 117, 118
 wood collection, 113, 114
 Root mean square errors (RMSE), 173, 179
 Rural economy boom and bust, 14
 castella, 15
 municipium, 13, 14
 non-military inhabitants, 10
 periodization, 8
 population sizes, 10, 11
 surplus production, 12
 surplus question, 11–12
 taxation and landownership, 12–14
 urban population, 10
 Rural marketing, Lower Rhine
 baseline model, 167
 data, 168, 169, 171
 economic relationship, 166 environmental factors, 167 historical implications, 181–183
 location analysis, 166, 167
 market exchange, 166
 market production, 167
 marketing behaviour, 169 modelling results, 180, 181
 multivariate analysis (see Multivariate analysis)
 network analysis, 166
 productive capacity, 169
 scaffolding model, 168
 settlement territories, 169, 170
 sharp relief, 166
 small-scale producers, 167
 study areas, 170

- Rural marketing, Lower Rhine (cont.)
 transportation costs, 166, 167
 univariate analysis
 (see Univariate analysis)
- Rural population growth, 50
- S
- Scaffolding model, 168
- Secondary settlements economic and commercial, 210 framework, 209
 long-term trade, 210
 macro-economic perspectives, 209
 network analysis, 205, 206, 208
 Ombrone System (see Ombrone System)
 quantitative approaches bibliographic inventory, 194 data mining, 194
 descriptive statistics, diachronic trends, 196, 199
 long-term historical trends, 194 proportions, collected sites per region, 196
 spatial statistics, 199, 200
 reviewed sites, 208 theory and method, 192–194
 transformations, 208
- Settlement evidence
 burial evidence, 50
 historical evidence, 50 inventories, 49
 population sizes, 49, 50
 pre-industrial societies, 50 productivity and urbanisation, 50
- Settlement population dynamics, 110
- Settlement study
 archaeological excavations (see Archaeological excavations) composition and evolution, 86–89 function, 78
 method of investigation, 78 qualify and improve, 78
 structuring and spatial evolution, 89, 90
 survey data quality, 78
 survey data vs. excavation, 82–86
 temporal dimension, 78–82
- Sex ratio
 epidemiological shock, 32 psychological shock, 32
 urbanization, 32
- Shannon index, 88, 89
- Short-term costs, 139
- Simpson index, 88, 89
- Slave-based villae, 150
- Small establishments, 145
- Small-scale producers, 167
- Smithian market, 154
- Snap entities, 79
- Social Network Analysis (SNA), 277, 279
- Social relationships, 153
- Socioeconomic phenomenon, 130
- Span entities, 79
- Statistics, 194
 descriptive, 195–199 fundamental, 206
 spatial, 199, 200
- Surplus debate in Dutch Roman archeology, 110
- Surplus production in Dutch Roman archaeology, 110 grain and animal products, 110 mechanism, 116
 in randomly-generated and reconstructed landscapes, 114
 in reconstructed landscapes, 117, 118
 in ROMFARMS, 123
- Survey data quality, 78
- Survey data vs. excavation
 ancient societies, 82
 characteristics, 82
 conditions and modalities, 83, 84 evolution of settlements, 82 internal dynamics, 82
 micro-regions, Plateau Lorrain, 82–83
 model of evolution, 85, 86
 trajectories of settlements, 84, 85
- T
- Taxes-and-trade model, 156
- Temporal dimension
 field surveys, 78–82
- Territorial scope, Laetanian Roman wine, 131, 132
- Thames Basin, 68, 69
- Thames River basin, 67
- Three-dimensional cube, 81
- Topography, 221
- Total costs (TC), 140
- Total fixed costs (TFC), 140
- Total variable costs (TVC), 140
- Trajectories of settlements, 84, 85
- Transport networks
 applications, 260–263
Caesaraugusta, 274
 communication system, 273
 constructing networks, 258–260
 digitization, 275–276

Iberian Peninsula, 273–274
 mobility, 255
 modelling transport, 256–257 networks, 255
 settlement location analysis, 263–265
 Transportation costs, 166, 167

U

Univariate analysis
 rural marketing
 diachronic trends, 177
 eastern zone, 178
 floodplain cluster, 178
 Focal Statistics tool, 172
 K-S test, 172
 landform classification system, 170
 Mid-Roman periods, 176 simplified classification, 171, 172 territorial radii, 176 time period, 176
 zone and territory size, 176
 Urban network analysis, Ostia archaeological studies, 317
 betweenness centrality, 320, 322, 324
 cardo maximus, 324
 centrality graphs, 317
 centrality measurements, 317
 decumanus, 323
 integrated computational approach, 314
 modelling movement intent, 314 network science methodologies, 313
 Ostia's Urban Landscape, 315–316 pedestrian movement, 314 radius, 319

Roman pedestrian research, 314
Semita dei Cippi, 323
 social activity, 314 study of movement, 313
 toolbox, 318
 transition enquiry, 317
 tripartite network, 318
Via della Foce, 323

V

Villa system, 133
Villae rusticae, 146
 Vine-growing specialization, 154
 Vineyard yields harvesting, 137
 per strain, 136
 productivity, processing machinery, 137
 winery, 137
 Viticulture supply chain, 136

W

Wages (in wheat) in Roman Egypt, 101
 Watermills, 101
 Welfare ratios, 100
 Wood collection, 113, 114

Y

Yield quantification, agro-ecological and agro-economic endowments
 cost quantification, 138–141
 economies of scale, 141, 142
 vineyard yields, 136–137