Paul Balogh graduated in philosophy from the University of Bucharest. He is the founder of Zeta Books, an academic publishing company, and a co-founder of Learn Forward, a UK-based education technology start-up.

James Christian Brown, a native of Scotland, is Assistant Professor in the English Department of the University of Bucharest. His translations from Romanian into English include Gabriel Liiceanu, The Păltiniș Diary: A Paideic Model in Humanistic Culture (Central European University Press, 2000), Lucian Boia, Romania: Borderland of Europe (Reaktion, 2001), Lucian Boia, History and Myth in Romanian Consciousness (Central European University Press, 2001), and Răzvan Petrescu, Small Changes in Attitude (University of Plymouth Press, 2011).

Gabriel Liiceanu is Emeritus Professor of Philosophy at the University of Bucharest. He is the author of many books on philosophy and phenomenology, of which several have been translated in different languages—Itinéraires d'une vie: E. M. Cioran (Michalon, Paris, 1995), De la limite (Michalon, Paris, 1997), Le journal de Paltinis: récit d'une formation spirituelle et philosophique (Éditions de La Découverte, Paris, 1999). He is the translator into Romanian (in collaboration) of Heidegger's Being and Time (Humanitas, 2003).

Catalin Partenie is Associate Professor of Philosophy at the National School of Political Studies and Administration, Bucharest. He is the editor of Plato. Selected Myths (Oxford University Press, 2004), Plato and Heidegger (Northwestern University Press, 2005, in collaboration with Tom Rockmore), and Plato's Myths (Cambridge University Press, 2009).

Andrei Pleșu is Professor of Philosophy of Religion at the University of Bucharest and former Rector of New Europe College, Bucharest. He has served as Minister of Culture and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Romania. He has published many books, of which several have been translated into other languages—On Angels: Exposition for a Post-Modern World (Berlin University Press, 2012; French translation, Buchet-Michelet, 2005), Pittoresque et mélancolie (Somogy, 2007), Reflexion und Leidenschaft: Elemente einer Ethik des Intervals (Deuticke, 1992) and Eliten: Ost und West (de Gruyter, 2000).
