

Index

A

- Air pollution, 7, 91
- Air pollution program (ProAire), 158
- Automobile Accessory Factory, 46
- Automobile Industry Restructuring and Revitalization, 34
- Automobile power, 34
- Automobile-related accidents, 44
- Automobility, 83–86
- Awareness raising campaigns, 293

B

- Bicycle pathway systems, 38
- Bicycle-led urban mobility, 38–40
- Bicycle-sharing programs, 49
- Bikesharing schemes, 262, 263
- Brazil
 - automobiles and trucks, 16
 - automobile use, 19–20
 - CIDE, 27
 - environmental pollution, 23
 - internal market, 12
 - legal instruments, 26
 - modal share trends, 14–15
 - motorcycles traffic, 28
 - motorization and car, 14
 - non-motorized transport, 19
 - social, political, and economic factors, 15, 19
 - traffic safety, 24
 - tram and train systems, 15
 - urban land use, 13
 - urban road systems, 13

- Bus and rail operators, 96
- Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) system, 7, 17, 51, 60, 66, 72, 76, 118, 133, 151, 161, 180, 236–237, 257, 258

C

- Cable car line, 76
- Car ownership, 153
- Countries, characteristics, 3
- China
 - automobile power, 34
 - automobile-related accidents, 44
 - bicycle pathway systems, 38
 - economic development, 48
 - motorized and non-motorized travelers, 38
 - national and municipal metros systems, 42
 - rail transit, 41–44
 - resurgence of cycling, 49
 - traffic-related air pollution, 44–45
 - urban growth, 34
 - urban land use patterns and structure, 36–38
- Collective taxi system, 156
- Colombia
 - agriculture, 60
 - BRT systems, 60
 - GHG emissions, 67
 - land use planning, 63
 - local governments, 73
 - motorization, 64–65
 - municipal governments, 63
 - population and motorization, 65
 - public transport, 65

- Colombia (cont.)
 road safety, 67
 traffic fatalities, 68
 urbanization process, 61
 urban transport, 67–69
- Commercial and office developments, 284
- Communism, 4
- Compressed natural gas (CNG), 100, 119
- Cordon pricing schemes, 142
- Corridor and Nodal Transit-Oriented Development, 241–244
- Curitiba's Bus Rapid Transit System, 18–19
- Cycle-rickshaws, 89
- D
- Delhi BRT, 98
- E
- EcoBici* program, 167
- Electric Transport System (STE), 161
- Emerging economies, 1
- The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI), 94
- F
- Faster Adoption & Manufacture of Electric Vehicles Policy, 100
- Federal District (DF), 146, 151
- FUMTA-style bus-funding schemes, 188
- G
- Gated community, 36
- GNI per capita, 175
- Greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions, 67, 128
- H
- Heterogeneous traffic
 Guwahati, 87
 Ranchi, 87
- I
- Imam-Ali freeway, 141
- India
 automobility, 83–86
 equity, 92
 fuel standards, 100
 health and safety, 91
 institutional coordination and capacity building, 97–98
 motorcycles, 90
 motorization rates, 82
 oil security, 92
 paratransit, 89–90
 PPPs, 95
 privatization of bus services, 98 public bus transport, 85, 87
 sprawling development patterns, 82
 traffic management, 99
 urbanization, 82
 urban land use patterns and structure, 82–83
- Indonesia
 economic activities, 109
 health and environmental impact, 116 internet-based shared transport services, 122
 local governments, 117
 metropolitan region, 111
 motorcycle ownership, 108
 motorcycles, 112–113
 motorization, 108
 MRT, 121
 TDM, 122
 transportation projects, 117
 transport proposals, 118
 urban land use patterns and structure, 109–112
 urban population, 108
 urban transport problems, 115–116
- Industrial suburbanization, 37
- Institute for Transportation and Development Policy (ITDP), 167
- Integrated bus systems., 17
- Integrated Urban Development Strategy and Action Plan (KENTGES), 264
- Integrated Urban Project, 77
- Intelligent Transport Systems Strategy Document and Action Plan, 264
- Internet-based shared transport services, 122
- Iran
 air pollution, 139
 auto-dependence, 134–136
 BRT system, 142
 car ownership and use, 131–132
 cycling, 134
 environmental impacts, 137–138 inequity, transportation, 137 metropolitan areas, 141
 minibuses and mototaxis, 137
 non-motorized transport, 133–134
 public transport, 132–133
 traffic congestion and parking shortage, 136
 traffic safety, 136
 urban expansion, 130

- urban land- use patterns and structure, 128–131
 - urban population, 128
 - Urban Transport Governance, 138–141
 - ITSP. See Institute for Transportation and Development Policy (ITDP)
- J
- Jakarta Mass Rapid Transit (MRT), 121–122
 - Japanese International Cooperation Agency, 63
 - Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission, 95
 - “Jinggangshan”, passenger car, 46
- K
- KENTGES*. See Integrated Urban Development Strategy and Action Plan (KENTGES)
- L
- Lagos Area Metropolitan Transport Authority (LAMATA), 185, 193, 194
 - Lagos metropolitan area, 178
 - Lagos State Transport Corporation, 178
- M
- Macro planning, 118
 - Mass Rapid Transit (MRT) system, 121
 - Medellín’s Metrocable, 76–77
 - Metrocable* cable car, 77
 - Metropolitan cities, 248
 - Mexibus*, 162
 - Mexico
 - aging population, 150
 - atmospheric pollution, 158
 - automobile, 153, 154
 - BRT, 152
 - capital city, 146
 - CETRAMs, 157
 - collective taxis, 156
 - Daily Travel*, 155–157
 - DF, 146
 - exchange rate, 156
 - metro, 161
 - mobility and transport modes, 149–151
 - modal split, 150
 - population, 150
 - safety and security, 157–158
 - socio-economic segregation, 148
 - transport challenges, 155
 - transport provision, 160
 - urban land use patterns and structure, 148
 - Mexico City Metropolitan Zone, 146
 - Mexico State, 146
 - Minibuses and mototaxis, 137
 - Ministry of Public Works and Public Housing, 117
 - Mobility Secretariat (SEMOVI), 166
 - Modal shares, selected African cities in 2008, 179
 - Monocentric urban development, 284
 - Motorcycle
 - ownership, 108
 - dominance, 272–273
 - Motorization process, 20
 - Motorization rate vs. GNI per capita in Nigeria, 181
 - Motorized modes, 285
 - Mototaxis, 65
 - MRT. See Mass Rapid Transit (MRT) system
 - Musrenbang, coordination platform in Jakarta, 117
- N
- National Ambient Air Quality Standard, 91
 - National and municipal metros systems, 42
 - National automotive industry, 45
 - National Electric Mobility Mission Plan, 100
 - National Key Science and Technology Industrialization Projects, 50
 - National Land Use Law, 63
 - National Mass Transit Policy, 69–72
 - National Urban Transport Policy, 99
 - Nawab highway cutting, 141
 - New energy vehicles, 50
 - Nigeria, 181–184
 - creation of Abuja, 191–192
 - fuel subsidies, 190
 - greenfield political capital, 193
 - inadequate technical and institutional capacity, 188–189
 - LAMATA, 193
 - Nigerian-based solutions, 193
 - political economy, 174
 - powerful and unruly private (informal) sector, 189
 - security disruptions and instability, 193
 - sub-Saharan African cities, 184, 190, 193
 - in transport use and mobility, 178–181
 - unsustainable urban travel, 193
 - urban land-use patterns and spatial structure, 174–178

Nigeria (cont.)

- urban transport problems
 - accessibility constraints, 182
 - air quality, 184
 - challenges, 181
 - public transport affordability, 182
 - road safety, 183
 - ubiquitous congestion, 181
- Urban Transport Solutions, 189–190
- weak local government institutions, 185–186
- weak national enabling environment, 186–188

Nigerian Union of Road Transport Workers (NURTW), 178, 189

Nigeria's city regions, 177

Non-motorized modes, 284, 285, 290, 292

Non-motorized travelers, 99

O

Oil security, 92

P

- Pacification, 23
- Paratransit, 265
- Parking shortage, 136
- Passenger Transport Network, 161
- “Peak car use” period, 40
- Personal security, 157
- Pilot Bus Franchise Schemes, 180
- Planned commercial districts, 83
- Polluting motor vehicles, 100
- PPPs. See Public–private partnerships (PPPs)
- Pricing mechanisms, 293
- Private car ownership, 45, 108, 248, 275–276, 286, 294
- Public bus transport and passengers, 87, 157
- Public–private partnerships (PPPs), 73, 95
- Public transport promotion, 274–275
- Public transport services, 22

R

- Rail-based public transport, 291
- “Reform and Opening-up” policy, 47
- Road-based public transport, 291–292
- Road infrastructure, 290
- Rural-urban migration, 248
- Russia

- burgeoning congestion, 204–205
- costs and practical difficulties, 198
- embracing travel, 214–215

- fiscal and financial capability, 210–213
- free and free-for-all parking, 207–208
- industry-based economy, 218
- “in-transition” approach, 218
- local administrations, 217
- local version of capitalism, 218
- national-scale knowledge-sharing scheme, 217
- parking management, 214–215
- “posttransition” solutions, 218
- postuniversity training, 217
- private sector, 198, 218
- public transport regulation and systems, 213–217
- rapid motorization, 218
- Russia's urbanization rate, 198
- socioeconomic model, 198
- soviet-era public transport systems, 205–207
- substantial regional disparity, 217
- traditional planning practices, 198
- transport and mobility, 202–204
- transport planning and strategy building, 208–210
- urban land-use patterns and structure, 199–201

S

- Smartcards, 261
- Smartphone applications, 261
- South Africa
 - apartheid, 225–231
 - broader decision-making system, 239–240
 - BRT, 231, 236–237
 - buses, 234–235
 - Cape Town—South Africa's legislative capital, 222
 - car-based movement system, 237
 - cars and taxis, 234
 - Corridor and Nodal Transit-Oriented Development, 241–244
 - education and literacy, 222
 - financial resources, 245
 - fragmented decision-making, 241
 - The Gau-Train, 237
 - integrated transportation authority, 244–245
 - limited access routes, 238
 - Mediterranean climate, 222
 - metropolitan authorities, 231
 - minibus-taxis, 235–236
 - NMT, 231, 233, 234
 - overground intracity rail, 234
 - planning ideas, 223–225
 - population, 222

- public transport modes, 239
- skewed patterns, 238–239
- spatial and transportation planning, 245
- transit-based land-use intensification, 241
- transportation, 222
- unintended consequences, 240
- Special economic zones, 83
- Sprawling development patterns, 82
- STE. See Electric Transport System (STE)
- Strategic public transport systems, 65
- Subsidy Reinvestment and Empowerment Program (SURE-P), 188
- Suburban buses, 165
- Suburban trains, 156

T

- Targeted Subsidies Reform, 142
- TDM. See Travel demand management (TDM)
- TERI. See The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI)
- TOD. See Transit Oriented Development (TOD)
- “Transformation in Transportation” project, 263
- Transit oriented development (TOD), 168, 241–244, 279, 280, 294
- TransMilenio’s development, 63, 74
- Travel demand management (TDM), 122–123
- Tumultuous periods, 111
- Turkey, 252–263
 - car ownership and use, 252
 - financing transportation, 261
 - pedestrian and disabled access, 255
 - public transport, 251
 - rural-urban migration, 248
 - spatial structure, 248–249
 - transportation-related decision-making, 260
 - transport governance, 260
 - transport solutions (see Urban transport)
 - transport use and mobility, 249–252
 - urban land use patterns, 248–249
 - urban mobility, 248
 - urban rail and BRT systems, 257, 258
 - urban transport problems
 - automobiles, flow and parking, 259, 260
 - emissions, 252–253
 - energy consumption, 253
 - non-motorized transport, 253
 - public transport and paratransit, 254–259
 - traffic safety, 252, 253

U

- Urban mobility, 8, 38–44, 49, 198, 201, 203, 218, 248
- Urban rail transport investments, 96

- Urban transport
 - governance
 - decision-making power, 289
 - financing, 290
 - public and private services, 290
 - traditional land, 289
 - transport policy-making, 289
 - guidance and legislation, 263–265
 - planning, 93
 - problems, 1, 90–92
 - anthropogenic atmospheric pollution, 286
 - automobiles, flow and parking, 259
 - emissions, 252–253
 - energy consumption, 253
 - non-motorized transport, 253
 - oil dependence and security, 287
 - public transport and paratransit, 254–259
 - public transportation, 288
 - small-scale operators, 288
 - traffic incidents, 287
 - traffic safety, 252, 253
 - walking and cycling, 287
 - solutions
 - automobile use, 277–278
 - bikesharing schemes, 262
 - land use and public transport, 278–279
 - motorcycle travel, 278
 - smartcards, 261
 - smartphone applications, 261
 - urban rail systems, 262
- Urban transportation policy, 8

V

- Vehicle access restrictions, 294
- Vietnam, 1, 2, 9, 267–280, 283, 284, 286, 288
 - decision-making, 276–277
 - Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh city, 269, 271
 - public bus services, 268
 - road network, 270
 - spatial structure, 269–270
 - transport funds, 276
 - transport governance, 276–277
 - transport use and mobility, 271–272
 - urban land use patterns, 269–270
 - urban transport
 - automobile use, 277–278
 - land use and public transport, 278–279
 - motorcycles dominance, 272–273
 - private car ownership and use, 275–276
 - public transport promotion, 274–275