

Index

A

Adam Smith's treatise, 273–275
Adaptive and emergent dynamics, 4
Adaptive leadership, 141
Adaptive work, 80
Agent-based (AB) model, 8, 188
Agents, 49–50
Antonovsky, A., 58
Artificial intelligence, 7

B

Basic Health Care Packages, 283
Best practice, 134
Body mass index (BMI), 217–218
“Bottom-up” community health system,
114–117
Business analytics, 6

C

Centre for Disease Control Kenya (CDC), 115
Cilliers, Paul, 39–42
Co-evolution, 33
Cognitive approach, 180
Communication, 50
Community health workers (CHW), 115
Complex adaptive health system
agents, 99, 107–110
bottom-up/top-down emergence, 159 bureaucratisation and technology, 89
communication, 92
community consultation, 111 community (meso) level, 194 (see also Meso level problems) decision principles, 91

direction without directives, 102 direct without directives, 97 elements, 90–91
equity, 75–76
feedback loops, 71
functional complex adaptive health system, 196
Government and non-Government subsystems, 124 healthcare system
agents, 78
government system, 78
human health, 78
Metronic, 95
organisational principles, 80
pharmaceutical industry, 95–96
uncountable interactions, 78
value, 94
vortex model, 79
health service/policy literature, 102–103
HIV/AIDS, Brazil
Brazilian Government's response, 118–120
complicated and complex problem,
117–118
Cynefin framework, 120
diverse groups, 112, 114
problem solving, 118
implications, 162–164
incentives, 91 indigenous community, 114 information reliability, 91 layered systems, 161–162
leaders, 72
limited value, 91–92
local communities, 85

- Complex adaptive health system (cont.)
- macro/policy-level, 105
 - manufacturer-level regulatory, 93
 - medicine, 87–88
 - meso/organizational and local-level, 105
 - micro/individual-level, 105
 - nano/organismic-level, 105–106
 - nonlinear behaviour, 71
 - NUKA System
 - Cynefin framework, 123
 - development of, 121–122
 - local Native Community, 112, 120
 - organisational foundations, 121
 - service redesign, 121
 - staff morale, 120
 - organisational research
 - core values, 81–82
 - definition, 78
 - purpose and goals, 80
 - simple rules, 82–83
 - organisational/system level
 - food regulation, 100–102
 - purpose and goals, 99–100
 - responsibilities, 101
 - organisational theory, 99
 - organisation's driver, 84
 - Passioura's visual parable, 160–161
 - patient-level value improvement, 93
 - patient needs vs. patient wants, 83–84
 - perceptions, 90
 - person-centredness, 75–76
 - policy (macro) level, 194, 207–208
 - primary care practice, 84
 - principles, 75
 - provider-level value improvement, 92
 - purpose and goals, 196
 - secondary care practice, 84
 - service delivery (micro) level, 193–194
(see also Micro-level problems)
 - Slums of Nairobi, 114–117
 - sustainability, 75–76
 - system as a whole, 124
 - underprivileged community, 114
 - urgency, 90
 - value-focused health system, 196
 - complex dynamic systems, 208
 - Cynefin approach, 208
 - highly chaotic systems, 208
 - highly ordered systems, 208
 - required interactions, 208, 209
 - shared deliberation, stakeholders, 210
 - visualisations, 72, 79, 84
- Complex adaptive systems (CAS), 4–5
- agents, 30
- a-posteriori* approach
- factors, 173, 175–176
 - health atlas, 173, 174
 - life-expectancy, 176–177
 - nonlinear interactions, 176
 - purpose, goals and values, 30, 179
 - simple/complicated systems, 171
 - stakeholders, 171–172
 - structures, interactions, and drivers, 171
 - time-series comparison, 178
- characteristics, 30, 40–42, 168, 170
- complex behaviour, 39
- evolution, 33
- health and healthcare contexts, 168
- influence diagrams, 190–191
- limitations, 40
- looking backwards, 165
- looking forward, 165
- modelling
 - learning tool, 182–183
 - problems, 182
 - system's dynamic behaviour, 183–186
 - techniques, 187–188
- multiple cause diagrams, 190–191
- properties, 30–33
- prospective approach
 - insanity, 179
 - measurements and projections, 179–180
 - mind models, 180–181
 - observations of system stakeholders, 180
 - vs.* organisational behaviour, 180
- rich pictures, 190
- self-defeating, 39
- self-organisation, 39
- simple rules, 30
- structure and dynamic behaviours, 34–35
- subsystem, 168–169
- system's history, 28
- visualisation (see Visualisation)
- Complex adaptive world
- Cynefin framework, 134, 136–138
 - leaders, 141–143
 - learning, 133–135
 - mindsets, 130–132
 - social interactions and knowledge exchange, 128
 - system constraints, 136–138
 - VUCA, 128–129
 - wicked problems, 129
- Complex dynamic systems, 27
- Complexity, 19–20, 27
- Complexity sciences

- CAS
 agents, 30
 characteristics, 30, 40–42
 complex behaviour, 39
 limitations, 40
 properties, 30–33
 purpose, goals, and values statements, 30
 self-defeating, 39
 self-organisation, 39
 simple rules, 30
 structure and dynamic behaviours, 34–35
 complex systems theory, 26–29
 Ebola virus, 43
 goal-delivering nature, 22 simple and complex scientific world views, 24–25 structure and relationships, 25 systems thinking, 25–26, 28
 Complex systems theory, 4–5, 26–29
 Constraints, 136–138
 Co-operation, 97
 Core driver, 19–20
 Cronkite, Walter, 78
 Cynefin approach, 208
 complex adaptive world, 134, 136–138
 HIV/AIDS, Brazil, 120
 NUKA System, 123
 visualisation, 48–51
- D
 Decision-making, 50
 Decision support systems (DSS), 7
 Design thinking, 234
 complex adaptive world, 130
 origins, 267
 policy making, 9–10
 principles, 267
 as a problem-solving strategy, 267–268 process, 269
 Discrete event (DE) model, 187
 Dubos, R., 57
- E
 Eastern Deanery AIDS Relief Program (EDARP)
 CHW, 115
 Cynefin framework, 117
 in Nairobi, 112
 organisation, 115 tuberculosis, 111–112
- Ebola virus, 43
 Einstein, Albert, 24
 Emergent practice, 134
 Equity, 242, 270
 definition, 248
 equitable care implementation, 252–253
 as guiding principle, 251
 health professionals, 252
 is a right, 248–249
 moral and ethical prerogative, 250
 nonlinear distribution of need, 250–251
 optimal outcomes, 249–250
 roles as agents, 247, 248
 shaping the design, 257
 Expert practice, 134
 Explicit knowledge, 133
- F
 Feedback loops, 30
 Foresight report, 224
 Fuzzy boundaries, 27, 30
- G
 Geographical information systems, 8
 Geospatial mapping, 173, 175–176
- H
 HAART. See Highly active anti-retroviral therapy (HAART)
 HAT. See Human African trypanosomiasis (HAT)
 Health and healthcare system redesign, 4–8
 agents, 78
 design thinking (see Design thinking) disambiguation
 Adam Smith's treatise, 273–275
 social, 273
 Don Berwick's ardent observation, 272
 equity, 270–272
 governments, 78
 Basic Health Care Packages, 283
 insurance systems, Europe, 283 mutual insurance, 284 provision, 285–286 social policy, welfare, and the welfare state, 284 voluntary societies, 284 human-centric health system redesign, 264
 human health, 78
 Metronic, 95
 mutually agreeable future state, 266

- Health and healthcare system redesign (cont.) need highest level leadership, 272 new look concepts, 275
 conceptual and philosophical foundations, 275–277 governance structure, 275 gross national product, 276 threats, 279
 not a business model commoditisation, 288 cooperation and partnership, 288 cost-effectiveness, 288 personal services, 288–289 public service, 288 service integration, 289
 organisational principles, 80
 person-centredness, 270–272
 pharmaceutical industry, 95–96
 principles, 269
 requirements, 269 social and societal entitlements, 273 social policy (Spicker, Paul), 283 structure and dynamics, 266
 sustainability, 270–272, 280–282
 uncountable interactions, 78
 users' experiences, enhancement of, 267 value, 94
 vortex model, 79
 welfare pluralism, 286–287 whole-of-systems thinking approach, 263
- Health experiences, 79, 80
- Health system, 4–8, 19–20, 234–238 community, 65–67 domains, 53–54
 health service, 65–67 illness and dis-ease, 56, 59 multimorbidity, 63, 65 personal experiential nature, 56–58
 self-rated health
 Australian community, 65–66
 future morbidity and mortality, 64
 impact of disability, 65, 67
 socioeconomic indicators, 65, 66
 somato-psycho-socio-semiotic model coping, 60
 disturbances, 60–61
 human experience, 60
 interconnected physiological network
 interactions, 62–64
 life events, 60 patterns, 61
 physiological pathways, 60
 psycho-neuro-immunology, 60
 structure and function, 61–62
- Heifetz, Ron, 126, 133
- Hierarchical organisational bureaucracies, 130
- Highly active anti-retroviral therapy (HAART), 115
- HIV/AIDS, Brazil
 Brazilian Government's response, 118–120
 complicated and complex problem, 117–118
 Cynefin framework, 120
 diverse groups, 112, 114
 problem solving, 118
- Homeokinetic stability, 63
- Human African trypanosomiasis (HAT), 178
- Husserl, E., 57
- I
- Illich, I., 57
 Inequity, 258
 Integrated health systems, 80
 Intuitive approach, 180
- K
- Kehlman, S., 57
 Knowledge transfer, 133–135
 Krakauer, David, 43–44
- L
- Large scale, 25, 26
- Leadership, 84
 adaptive Cynefin framework, 134, 136–138
 leaders, 141–143
 learning, 133–135
 mindsets, 130–132
 social interactions and knowledge exchange, 128
 system constraints, 136–138
 VUCA, 128–129
 wicked problems, 129
 creation and transfer of knowledge, 126 failure as an opportunity, 126 habits of mind openness, 148–149 pattern of behaviours, 148 restraint/action paradox, 150–151 situational awareness, 149–150
 implications, 154–155
 improvisational dynamic process of moving forward, 138

- complex adaptive systems, 139–141
 - leaders and managers, 139
 - organisation, 139
- leaders, 126
- organisation as a whole, 126
- over-all purpose, 156
- permission to experiment, 126
- process, 157–158
- reductionism, 146–147
- situational types, 153
- system's constraints, 157
- Type I situations, 152
- Type II situations, 152–153
- Type III situations, 152–153
- Linear relationships, 130
- Lobbyists, 99
- Local constraints, 103
- Local contexts, 97
- Local environment, 97

M

- Macro-level problems, 105, 207–208
- Maslow, H.A., 57
- Meso level problems
 - Community 2168 project
 - community deprivation and hopelessness, 204
 - forums set up, 204
 - strategic plan 2015–2018, 204, 205
 - complex adaptive health system, 105
 - individual and community health outcomes, 204
 - SUS project
 - childhood obesity, 206
 - emergent properties, 206
 - meso and micro levels of care, 207
 - obesity prevention project, 206
 - systems change agenda, 206
 - team-based leadership, 207
- Micro-level problems, 105
 - avoidable hospitalisation, frail elderly discernible phases, 200
 - health trajectory monitoring, 200, 202
 - micro and meso levels of care, 200
 - PaJR system, 200, 201
 - direct patient care, 197
 - disease progression, John's deterioration
 - causal loop diagram, 197, 198
 - disease-focused mindset, 197
 - patient and physician partnership, 199
 - person-centred approach, 197–198
 - positive outcomes, guideline for, 199

- MRSA-control
 - adaptive change process, 201–203
 - importance of context, 202–203
 - positive deviance, 201
- Mind models, 180–181
- Multi-ontology sense making, 180–181
- Multiple cause diagrams, 48–49
- Mutually agreeable outcomes, 103

N

- Nano level, 105
- Nonlinearity, 31
- Novel practice, 134
- NUKA system, 83
 - Cynefin framework, 123
 - development of, 121–122
 - local Native Community, 112, 120
 - organisational foundations, 121
 - service redesign, 121
 - staff morale, 120

O

- Obesity, 176
 - complexities, 216
 - epidemic, 4, 213, 214
 - industry aspects
 - conflicted politics, food system, 220, 222, 223
 - food system's interrelationships and interactions, 222–223
 - interventions, 214
 - known factors, 214
 - network variables, 214
 - physiological aspects, 216
 - BMI, 217–218
 - low-grade inflammation, white adipose tissue, 216–217
 - seamlessly integrated policy approach, 214
 - social aspects
 - community factors, 220–222
 - social spread of obesity, 218–219
 - system redesign
 - broadening public debate, 229
 - integrated policy approach, 227, 229
 - management, 231
 - roots of resistance, 229–230
 - sources of resistance, 227–228
 - 3-D representation, 227
 - 2-D representations, 227
 - systems-based approaches, 225
 - anti-obesogenic food system, 224

- Obesity (cont.)
 a priori exploration, 225 broad domains, 224, 227 complete obesity systems map, 224, 226
 Foresight report, 224
 intervention strategies, 224, 225, 228 obesogenic food environment, 224 personal responsibility, 224 systems solutions, 216
- Open to environment, 31
- Organisational dynamics, 136–138
- Organismic-level, 105–106
- Organizational and local-level, 105
- Ought to redesign complex adaptive personal nature of health, 246
 equity, 242
 definition, 248
 equitable care implementation, 252–253
 as guiding principle, 251
 health professionals, 252
 is a right, 248–249
 moral and ethical prerogative, 250
 nonlinear distribution of need, 250–251
 optimal outcomes, 249–250
 roles as agents, 247, 248
 shaping the design, 257
- inequity
 entrench factors, 258
 examples of between and within country, 259
- person-centredness, 241–242
 community engagement, 247–248
 economic sustainability, 247
 focus on health, 247
 future morbidity and mortality, 247
 good subjective health experiences, 247
 health services, impact on, 248
 personal health and health experience, 246
- seamlessly integrated health system, 241, 244, 245
- sustainability, 242
 costs, 253
 notion, 253–254
 UK approaches, 261
 US approaches, 260
 WHO-Europe's recognition, 241
- P
 Pareto-distribution, 65
 Path dependence, 30, 103
- Pattern of interaction, 32
- Pellegrino, Edmund, 82
- Personal knowing, 133
- Person-centredness, 241–242, 270
 community engagement, 247
 economic sustainability, 247
 focus on health, 247
 future morbidity and mortality, 247
 good subjective health experiences, 247
 health services, impact on, 248
 personal health and health experience, 246
- Phenotypic disease, 62–63
- Plato, 57
- Policy-level, 105
- Policy making, 14–16, 50
 blank sheet approach, 11
 Canterbury Health District (NZ), 18
 design thinking, 9–10
 NHS, 9
 Obamacare health system chart, 17
 policy reform approach, 5, 10
- Power law probability distribution, 65
- R
 Reductionist thinking, 130
 Reductive thinking, 130
 Reinforcing, 30
 Requisite diversity, 181
- S
 Self-organisation, 32
 Self-rated health
 Australian community, 65–66
 future morbidity and mortality, 64
 impact of disability, 65, 67
 socioeconomic indicators, 65, 66
- Self-stabilising, 30
- Sensitive to initial condition, 30
- Service organisations, 82
- Shape up Somerville (SUS) project
 childhood obesity, 206
 emergent properties, 206
 meso and micro levels of care, 207
 obesity prevention project, 206
 systems change agenda, 206
 team-based leadership, 207
- Silo effect, 5
- Simple systems, 26
- Sleeping sickness, 178
- Small scale, 24–26
- Social environments, 50
- Social system, 30

- Society at large, 82
 - Somato-psycho-socio-semiotic model
 - coping, 60
 - disturbances, 60–61
 - human experience, 60
 - interconnected physiological network
 - interactions, 62–64
 - life events, 60
 - patterns, 61
 - physiological pathways, 60
 - psycho-neuro-immunology, 60
 - structure and function, 61–62
 - SUS project. See Shape up Somerville (SUS) project
 - Sustainability, 242, 270
 - costs, 253
 - notion, 253–254
 - UK approaches, 261
 - US approaches, 260
 - System dynamics (SD) model, 187
 - Systems as wholes
 - learning tool, 182–183
 - problems, 182
 - system's dynamic behaviour, 183–186
 - techniques, 187–188
 - Systems-based approach
 - core focus, 1
 - health system subsystems, 1
 - integrated health system, 1–2
 - mindset/worldview
 - beliefs, 3
 - complexity thinking, 3–8
 - experience of health by the person, 1
 - mental attitudes, 3
 - needs of the person/patient, 1
 - systems thinking, 1, 4–8
 - policy making, 14–16
 - blank sheet approach, 11
 - Canterbury Health District (NZ), 18
 - design thinking, 9–10
 - NHS, 9
 - Obamacare health system chart, 17
 - policy reform approach, 5, 10
 - Systems engineering, 6
 - Systems science thinking, 5
- T
- Tacit knowledge, 133
 - Tipping point, 30
- U
- Uncertainty, 50
- V
- Value-based systems, 102
 - Value focused complex adaptive health system, 196
 - complex dynamic systems, 208
 - Cynefin approach, 208
 - highly chaotic systems, 208
 - highly ordered systems, 208
 - required interactions, 208, 209
 - shared deliberation, stakeholders, 210
 - Visualisation
 - causal loops, 48, 50
 - Cynefin framework, 48–51
 - function and structure, 45
 - influence diagrams, 48–49
 - sign graph diagrams, 48–49
 - systems map, 48
 - vortex metaphor, 45, 47–48
 - Volatility Uncertainty Complexity Ambiguity (VUCA), 128–129
- W
- Wicked problems, 129