

Index

A

- Abrasiveness, 42
- Academic underachievement, 266
- Addictions and mental health
 - anxiety disorders, 137, 138, 140
 - binge drinking, 137, 138, 140
 - cigarette smoking, 136–138, 140, 141
 - critical intersections, 136
 - mood disorders, 137, 138, 140
 - outcomes, 138
 - social factors, 136
- Adolescence
 - cognitive abilities, 149
 - perception of well-being, 148
 - worries, 153, 155
- Afghan boys
 - age group, 38
 - anti-colonial and critical feminist analysis, 38
 - Bacha Bazi, 38
 - conflict and militarized violence, 38
 - homoerotic relations, 41, 42
 - implications, 50, 51
 - inside-out resistance, 49, 50
 - mental health and stigma, 38, 48, 49
 - militarized nation, 39, 40
 - pederasty and homoerotic relationships, 37
 - pedophilia, 42–44
 - sexual acts, 37
 - sexual violation, 38, 40, 41
 - transition, 44–46
- African-Canadian adolescents and teens, 205
- Aggression
 - and anger, 233
 - and antisocial behavior, 232

- children and adolescents, 232
- homogeneity, 237, 238
- in Korean male middle school students, 233
- music program, 243
- research variables and measurement, 235
- and self-esteem, 232
- self-injurious, 235, 238, 239
- and violent behavior, 231
- AIDS pandemic, 321
- Anonymous cyber perpetrator, 84
- Anti-Black racism (ABR), 188–192, 194–197, 199–204, 314
- Anxiety disorders
 - food insecurity, 138, 140
 - prevalence rates, 137, 140
- Armed conflict, 38, 39, 42, 46
- Asian and Pacific Islander youth, 86
- Assertive Community Treatment team, 314
- Asylum laws, 292

B

- Bacha Bazi, 38
- Bill C-13*, 79
- Binge drinking, 137, 138, 140
- Black children and youth
 - and Aboriginal, 191
 - anti-Black racism, 190
 - care of Ontario's 47 private, 187
 - criminalization of Black families, 196
 - in Ontario, 191
 - public data available, 188
 - removal of, 201

- Black families
 anti-Black racism, 197, 201
 Canadian literature, 200 criminalizing, 196
 devaluation of, 191
 disproportionality and disparity of, 200 in disciplinary issues, 193 racial profiling and policing of, 191, 195 removal of Black children, 189
 surveilling and controlling, 194, 195
- Black youth
 coming-out process, 126
 community, US, 124
 homophobia, 124
 homosexuality, 125
 intersectional stigma and discrimination, 127
 minority stress, 122
 multiple oppressions, 121–126
 oppression, 123
 racial oppression and marginalization, 124 sexual minorities, 122 stigma and discrimination, 121
 white LGBTQ, 122
- C
- Canada, see PhotoVoice
 Canada's multiculturalism, 64
 Canada's population growth, 411
 Canadian Association of Rwandan Youth (CARY), 388
 Canadian Community Health Survey (CCHS), 137
 Canadian Criminal Code, 79
 Canadian education system, 289
 Canadian-born Italian and Portuguese youth, 65
 Child Protection Information Network (CPIN), 192
 Children's aid societies (CASs), 187, 188, 190, 192, 193, 202, 290
 Cigarette smoking, 136–138, 140, 141
 Client Support Services program, 296
 Collectivist cultures, 109
 Colonialism, 188–190, 196, 202, 349
 Community-based participatory research (CBPR), 414
 Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC), 192
 Coping strategies, 148, 149
 Critical pedagogy banking education, 271 childhood, 268
 corporate sovereignty, 273
 description, 268
 folk theories of success, 275 institutional racism, 274 interpersonal racism, 273, 274, 276
 limitations, 277
 marginalization, 272
 middle-class families, 275 model of manhood, 274
 oppositional identity, 275 racial profiling and police carding, 272
 racialization, 272
 school-based remediation programs, 276 self-deprecating beliefs, 273, 274 slavery and colonization, 274 social class, 276
 stereotyping, 272
 tokenism and paternalism, 272
 white privilege, 273
- Critical response
 by Babbista Shimwe, 300
 by Lina Homa, 301
- Cultural adaptation, 412, 413
- Cultural conflicts, 178, 179
- Cultural identity
 acculturation studies, 58
 adaptation, 58
 Canadian society, 57
 collaborative and iterative process, 61 contested concept, 61, 62 ecological framework, 59 ethnic and immigrant groups, 70–71
 geo-sociopolitical environments, 59 global migration, 57 global politics, 70
 group category, 59
 immigrant youth, 58 individual's responses, 70 interactive and bidirectional relationship, 59 migration, 68, 69
 parents' cultural backgrounds, 70 participation, 61
 prejudice and discrimination, 60 psychological experience, 58, 72 qualitative research studies, 61 study design, 70 systems perspective, 62–66 themes, 61
 youth's mental health, 58 youth's psychosocial integration, 60
- Cultural stigmatization, 42
- Cyber bullying, 80, 81, 86, 90
- Cyber misogyny, 81
- Cyber sexual violence (Cyber-SV) against women, 81
 Canadians, 79

- child sexual exploitation, 81
 - components, 81
 - dangerous activities, 78
 - definitions, 80
 - depressive symptoms, 87
 - dimensions, 84, 85
 - EYW, 82, 83
 - gender crimes, 78, 87
 - gender-based and human rights, 78, 87
 - implications, 88–90
 - limitations, 88
 - mental health implications, 85–87
 - online and offline harm, 80
 - privacy and anonymity, 87
 - private video/images, 79
 - slut shaming, 87
 - socialization, 79
 - structural factors, 85
 - structural inequities, 78
 - studies, 78
 - technological advancement, 77, 87
 - universal criminalization, 79
 - victimization, 78
 - vs. EYW, 79
 - Cyber shaming, 90
 - Cyber stalking, 79, 80
 - Cyber victimization, 81
 - Cyber violence against women and girls (Cyber-VAWG), 81
- D
- Dancing Boys/Bazangar, 38, 42–45, 48
 - Demographic and surveillance system, 60, 61, 324
 - Digital communication technologies, 77
 - Disproportionality of Black children, 197–199
 - African-American children, 187
 - African-Canadian mental health, 202, 203
 - anti-Black racism theory, 189, 201
 - Black children’s aid society, 202
 - Black community, 187
 - blaming black mothers, 192, 193
 - child welfare-to-prison pipeline, 191–193
 - “color-blind” child welfare laws and policies, 191, 192
 - criminalizing black families, 196
 - disparity, 187, 200
 - historical and contemporary roots and theory, 188–191
 - limitations, 200
 - mental health impact
 - children and youth, 198, 199
 - ongoing pain and suffering in families, 197
 - removal of, 197
 - Ontario’s child welfare system, 187, 188, 201
 - pathologizing black mothers, 196, 197
 - practice experiences, 202
 - racial profiling and policing black families, 187, 195, 200
 - shaming and humiliating black mothers, 193–197
 - structural and social inequalities, 188
 - surveilling and controlling black families, 194, 195
 - Domestic Violence Death Review Committee (DVRDC), 78
 - Dual-identity conflicts, 171–173
- E
- EAL, see English as an additional language (EAL)
 - Eating disorders, 170, 171, 173, 174
 - conceptualizations, 166, 167
 - dual-identity conflict, 172, 173
 - family counselling, parenting programs on mental health, 173, 174, 179
 - gendered roles and expectations, 174, 175
 - help-seeking behaviors and coping strategies, 169
 - intersectionality framework, 168, 169, 176–178
 - limitations, 178
 - mental health care services, 175, 176, 179
 - methods
 - data analysis, 170, 171
 - family conflict, 173–174
 - participants, 170
 - reflexivity, 171
 - minority groups, 167, 168
 - SA community, 179
 - sociocultural context, 167
 - South Asian communities, 166–167
 - treatment programs and counselling methods*, 179
 - Ecological systems model, 59
 - Education pathways
 - asylum and education policies, 298
 - commonalities, 298
 - diversity of refugee youth, 298
 - Germany and Canada, 287, 290, 291
 - inclusive and specialized schooling, 294–296
 - key informant interviews and literature review, 291, 292

- Education pathways (cont.)
- in Munich, 297
 - programmatic and systemic approaches, 298
 - progressive educational policies, 297
 - refugee claimant youth face, 287, 297
 - resettled refugee, 297
 - restrictive asylum policies, 292, 293
 - social milieu for youth, 298
 - systemic barriers and institutional constraints, 296, 297
 - in Toronto, 297
 - unaccompanied minors in Toronto and Munich, 293, 294
 - well-being and mental health, 288–290
- ELT, see English language teaching (ELT)
- Emerging young women (EYW), 77
- British online survey, 84
 - Cyber-SV, 82
 - gender transformative, 83
 - gender violence, 83
 - images/videos, 84
 - mental health implications, 85–87
 - patriarchal sexual norm, 83
 - potential risks, 82
 - private and public domains, 83
 - re-distributing, 82
 - sexual conformity, 84
 - sexual double standard, 83
 - sexual exploitation, 82
 - socialization, 82
- English as a second language (ESL) system, 295
- English as an additional language (EAL), 361–367, 370–372
- area of research, 372
 - capitalism, 361
 - curriculum development, 373
 - description, 359
 - dialectical framework, 361, 369
 - education professionals, 372
 - ELT community, 360
 - English learners, 360
 - immigration policy, 361
 - individualized trauma, 368, 369
 - legalization process, 360
 - Marxist theory and dialectical framework, 360
 - organized human activity, 361
 - PTSD (see Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD))
 - racism and discrimination, 360
 - reflect method, 371
 - refugee youth and integration
 - academic institutions, practices, polices, and rules, 366
 - continuum of violence, 364, 365
 - deficit model, 362
 - domains, 362
 - educational system, 362
 - employment discrimination, 366
 - individual and social identities, 366
 - language learning, 363
 - mental health benefit, 366
 - multilevel trauma framework, 361
 - poor language skills and low literacy, 362
 - social practices, 362
 - structural violence, 363, 364
 - refugees, immigrants, visitors and international students, 372
 - reproductive/limited praxis, 368, 369
 - resilience
 - arts, 370–372
 - ESL education, 370
 - social change, 368
 - TESL degree programs, 369
- English language teaching (ELT), 360, 372
- Ethnic identity, 11, 58
- F
- Facial difference, mother-daughter relationship, 256–258
- Anglo-Western culture, 249
- attitudes and fears, 259
- Black mothering and armoring, 250–252
- body development, 249
- communication and empowerment, 254–256
- description, 247
- feminist disability, 248
- implications, 259, 260
- interviews, 252, 253
- knowledge and understanding, 248
- modeling, teaching, talking and sharing, 253, 254
- mothering, feminist disability, 249–252
- personality attributes, 248
- psychological research, 248
- qualitative methods, 248
- quality of life, 247
- resistance and resilience
 - armoring process, 258
 - Black community, 257, 258
 - liminal relational spaces and armoring, 258
 - mothers' recognition and affirmation, 256

- non-disabled Black women, 257
 - positive reflections, 257
 - protective expressions, 257
 - social resources, 258
 - transition to adolescence, 249
- Federal legislation, 91
- Female youth
 - homophobia, 125
 - intersectional stigma and discrimination, 120, 121, 127
 - LBQ, 119
 - minority stress, 122
 - service providers and policy makers, 121
 - sexual identity, 126
 - sexual orientation, 123
 - stigma and discrimination, 121, 126
- Food insecurity
 - addictions, 141
 - cigarette smoking, 136, 138, 140
 - gender-stratified prevalence rates, 142
 - mental health, 136, 138, 141
 - mood disorder management programs, 138, 141
 - powerlessness—families, 142
 - prevalence rates, 137, 140
 - socioeconomic indicator, 135
 - status, 140
 - strengths and limitations, 142
 - theoretical approach, 136, 137
- Freudian theory, 43

- G
- Gender-based violence, 87–90, 93, 140
- Gender-transformative health promotion framework (GTHP), 83
- Geo-sociopolitical environments, 59
- German education system, 289
- Global politics, 70
- God Grew Tired of Us*, 109
- Greater Toronto Area (GTA), 226
- Gross national product (GNP), 10
- Gymnasium, 289

- H
- Harambee Child and Family Services, 204
- Healthy immigrant effect, 3, 412
- Heterosexism, 41, 122, 124, 126, 128
- Homoeroticism, 41
- Homophobia, 119, 121, 124, 125
- Host program, 108

- I
- Identified as in-country refugee claimants (IRCC), 289
- Immigrant Youth and Cultural Identity Project (IYCIP), 60, 72, 73, 412
- Immigration status, 33, 34
 - Canadian society, 21
 - community-based research, 22, 26
 - data gathering process, 26
 - demographics at a glance, 23, 24
 - identity formation, 22, 30, 31
 - illegalization, 27, 28
 - immigration and refugee policies, precarity, 24, 25
 - implications and recommendations
 - anti-oppressive, feminist praxis, 34
 - expansive and inclusive discourse, 33
 - youth-led, trauma-informed policy change, 33
 - inaccess and exclusion, 29, 30
 - insidious systemic inequities, 22
 - interpersonal violence, 22
 - and mental health, 21
 - multiple interlocking systems, 23
 - policy and praxis, 22
 - settlement and mental health, interwoven, 25, 26
 - trauma-informed, anti-oppressive, and intersectional approach, 22
 - uncertainty, 31, 32
 - youth demographic, 22
- Independent High Commission of Human Rights, 49
- International Commission for Intervention in State Sovereignty (ICISS), 47
- Intersectional stigma and discrimination (mental well-being)
 - coming-out process, 123
 - conservative religious values, 124
 - homophobia and heterosexism, 124, 125
 - LGBQ youth, Canada, 120, 121
 - LGBT, 122
 - LGBTQ, 119, 122
 - policy, 127–128
 - resilience, 125, 126
- Intersectionality approach
 - coping strategies, 169
 - critical framework of analysis, 168, 169
 - eating disorder, 171
 - personal identity, 176
- Investigation and Preventing Criminal Electronic Communications Act* (2012), 79

Iranian focus groups, 66
 Italian culture, 65

J

Jamaican-Canadians, 268 colonization and slavery, 266
 critical pedagogy (see Critical pedagogy)
 education and socioeconomic integration, 266
 financial challenges, 267 immigration, 266 youth, 269, 270

K

The Kite Runner, 38

L

Latin-American Seeds, 73
 Learning Enrichment and Acceleration
 Pathways (LEAP) Program, 295, 296
 Lesbian, bisexual and queer (LBQ) challenges, 125 families and racial communities, 126
 homophobia, 125
 intersectional stigma and discrimination, 120, 121, 127
 minority stress, 122
 multiple oppressions, 121–126
 oppression, 123
 policies, 127
 racism, 124, 126
 sexual orientation, 123
 social work practice experiences, 120
 stigma and discrimination, 126
 Lesbian, gay, bisexual and queer (LGBQ) youth in Canada, 120, 121 traditional support systems, 125
 Lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) youth face discrimination, 120 queer, 119
 racism, 126
 sexual orientation, 122
 Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer
 (LGBTQ), 119–122, 126, 128
 Life stressors, 232

M

Mad Studies
 academic field of scholarship, 305 antianist social work practice, 313

assignments, 313, 315
 broadening, 312
 BSW program, 311
 critical approaches to mental health, 308–310
 International Declaration on Youth Mental Health, 309
 Mad Movement, 305
 Mad pedagogy, 316
 Mad-informed course, 316
 “mental health” patient, 309, 311
 Native Women’s Resource Center, 312 non-Western approaches, 312 ontology and epistemology, 305 post-secondary institutions, 315 queer youth psychologist in training, 312 racism and anti-Black racism, 312 Ryerson social work students, 311 sanism, 309
 in social work, 310, 311 spaces of learning, 313 students, 311, 314
 TEDX talk on sanism, 314
 youth and mental health, 306–308 youth/young adult university students, 315
 Madvocates, 310
 Mental health, 4, 158
 cultural identities, 12 health advantage, 3
 implications, 13, 14
 international migration, 3
 intersectionality, 12
 limitations, scoping review, 13 micro and macro structural levels, 12 migrant youth (see Migrant youth) non-racialized families, 13 pre-migration stressors, 4 refugee/stupid, 12 social identities, 4 socioeconomic constraints, 4 trans-identity, 12
 war and conflict, 3
 worries (see Worries)
 Mesosystem, 64
 Migrant youth, 4, 8–10 additive and compounded effect, 5 characteristics, 7, 8 coping and adaptation, 10, 11
 definitions, 5
 description, 8
 determinants of mental health intra-personal conflict, 10 parent-child relationship difficulties, 9–10

- post-migration settlement stressors, 8
 - school adjustment, 9
- health research, 4
- immigrant populations, 4
- intersectionality, 5
- racism and discrimination, 11
- scoping review, 6, 7
- Migration, 68, 69
- Mittelschule, 289
- Mood disorders
 - food insecurity, 140
 - food security, 138
 - management programs, 141
 - prevalence rates, 137, 138, 140
- Mossi ethnic group, 332
- Multiple identities, 66–68
 - cultural identity, 66–68
- Music intervention
 - aggression controlling, 233
 - clients, 233
 - group counseling, 241
 - maladjustment problems, 231–244
 - research variables and measurement, 235
 - and self-esteem, 240

- N
- National identity, 11
- National Report on Bacha Bazi in Afghanistan*, 38
- NGOs' approach, 333–334
- Nonpsychiatric forms, 308
- NVivo software, 325

- O
- Ontario's child welfare system, 188, 189, 191, 200–202
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Programme, 290
- Ouagadougou (Burkina Faso)
 - AIDS pandemic, 322
 - community-based rehabilitation, 331, 332
 - demographic characteristics of participants, 325
 - economic barriers to resilience, 321, 330
 - gender barriers to resilience, 329, 330
 - long-term diseases and hospitalization, 326
 - methods, 324, 325
 - NGOs, 330
 - optimism, 328
 - orphan girls, 323, 324, 331
 - parental death, 322
 - participants, 325
 - paternal orphans, 321
 - Sahelian societies, 322
 - scholars, 321
 - social protection, orphans, 331
 - social support, 327
 - spirit of competition, 327, 328
 - in Sub-Saharan Africa, 321
 - suffering, 326, 327
 - theoretical approach, 322, 323

- P
- Pedophiliachild survivors, 46
 - drag performances, 44
 - hierarchical value system, 43
 - internal trafficking, 42
 - intersectionality and feminist analysis, 43
 - and masculine possession, 44
 - mental health professionals, 47, 48
 - orientalism and islamophobic, 42
 - primary health care system, 47
 - PTSD, 48
 - school-aged children, 46
 - self-harm behaviors, 46
 - sexual abuse, 48
 - sexual violation, 43, 44, 47
 - stigmatization, 46, 47
 - UN and NGOs, 47
 - unlawful/honor crimes, 43
 - war and conflict, 47
- PhotoVoice, 416–422
 - CBPR, 414
 - crime, violence and stress, 421
 - health in IRN
 - parks and green spaces, 416, 417
 - places of worship and school, 417, 418
 - plants, flowers and diversity, neighbourhood, 418
 - recreational facilities, 417
 - themes and sub-themes, 416
 - immigrants, 411
 - implications
 - policy, 421
 - research method, 422
 - service and practice, 422
 - inter-ethnic relationships, 421
 - multiple and inter-connecting neighbourhood factors, 421
 - parks and recreational facilities, 420, 421
 - physical and social resources, 420
 - park and building maintenance, overcrowding and garbage, 418, 419
 - research and community development, 413

- PhotoVoice (cont.)
 sampling, selection and descriptive statistics, 414–416
 social factors
 community, violence, crime and security, 419, 420 homelessness and broader economic environment, 420 suggestions for improvement, 416
- Portuguese-Canadians, 268
 Critical Pedagogy (see Critical Pedagogy)
 education and socioeconomic integration, 266
 immigrant project, 267 population, 267
 youth, 270
- Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 47, 103, 104, 367
- Poverty, 412, 413
- Professional qualifications, 64
- Provincial legislation, 74, 91
- Psycho-social programs, 109
- PTSD, see Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD)
- R
- Racial diversity, 412, 413
- Racial trauma, 201, 203, 204
- Realschule, 289
- Refugee youth, 345–353
 definition, 342
 emotional reactions, 342
 mainstream mental health service, 344, 345 mental disorders, 341 psychiatry advocacy skills, 352 assessment, 351
 colonialism, 349
 colonality of knowledge, 349 community-based mental health solutions, 347, 348, 352 culture, 351
 economic and political problems, 350 educational opportunities, 288 emerging service model, 349 emotional support, 350
 immigration system, 352 mainstream mental health services, 350 medical tradition, 353 politics, 347
 power dynamics, 351
 psychotherapy, 350
 racism, 350
 role, 348, 349 social realities, 350 social suffering, 351
 resilience, 343, 344
 safety, 342
 suffering models, 345, 346
 politics, 346, 347
- Resilience, 10, 125, 126
 bouncing back, 394 community organizations, 397, 405 conventional understandings, 403
 definitions, 394
 demographic profile, participants, 397, 398 developments, 394 disadvantage and marginality, 398 focus groups, 397
 individual–relational challenges and strategies, 399, 400
 limitations, 398, 399
 marginalization, 396, 405
 physical fitness, 403
 racialization, 403
 social constructionism, 394, 395
 social policy and community programing, 403 social–environmental challenges and strategies, 400–402 stress, 403
 traditional approaches, 393
- Rwandan youth, 388, 389
 anxiety and depression, 384 cognitive frames, 383 community events, 380
 coping strategies, 379
 cultural trauma, 381 ethnic diversity, 388 facial expressions and gestures, 380 genocide survivors, 389
 hip-hop culture, 385 internalized racism, 384, 390 memories and connections, 380
 migration, 387, 388, 390
 multiculturalism, 382
 NGOs, 389
 polish ethnicity, 380 political violence, 390
 pseudonyms, 380
 racialization, 379, 382–384, 386, 388
 Rwandan women, 386, 387
 Rwandaness, 388
 snowball technique, 380 survivors, 383, 384 traditional dances, 389 violence, 382

S

- School maladjustment
 - aggression, 231
 - emotional control, 233
 - homogeneity testing, 237, 238
 - implications, 242–243
 - participants, 233–234
 - power of music, 243–244
 - procedures, 234
 - research variables and measurement, 235
 - music intervention, 235–236
 - self-esteem, 235
 - statistical analyses, 236
 - self-confidence, 232
 - self-esteem and aggression, 232
 - within- and between-groups comparison, 238–239
- Segmented Assimilation Theory, 266–268
- Self-harm, 217, 219, 224
- Semistructured in-depth interviews, 324
- Settlement and Education Partnership in Toronto (SEPT), 14
- Settlement Worker in Schools (SWIS), 295
- Sexting, 81
- Sexual morality, 84
- Sexual violation
 - Afghan boys, 38
 - Bacha (boy) Bazi (play), 38
 - boys and Afghan law, 40, 41
 - childhood, 45
 - description, 37
 - mental health impacts, 46–48
 - rehabilitation, youth, 50
 - resilience, 38
 - stigmatization, 48
- Slavery, 188–191, 193, 195–197, 201, 202, 204
- Slut shaming, 81
- Social capital
 - categorization, 395
 - dimensions, 396
 - friendships, peer networks, teachers and mentors, 404
 - local authorities, 404
 - marginalization, 404
 - social constructionism, 396
 - social networks, 396
- Social constructionism, 394, 395
- Social Determinants of Health (SDOH), 136
- Social location, 107, 108
- Social Psychology and Human Nature, Cram 101 Textbook Review* (2015), 104
- Social stigma, 217–219
- Somali refugee youth, 288
- South Asian youth
 - community level, 179
 - difficulties and challenges, 172
 - eating disorder etiology, 168
 - intersectionality framework, 171
 - second-generation, mental health, 177
 - treatment programs and counselling methods, 179
- Sub-Saharan African countries, 334, 335
- Supporting our sisters (SOS)
 - accessible services creation, 223–224
 - barriers to services, 221–222
 - definitions, 212
 - implications, 226–227
 - limitations, 225–226
 - literature review, 212–214
 - methodology, 215
 - one-to-one counseling, 211
 - participants, 211
 - coping strategies, 218
 - definition of sexual violence, 217
 - ethical issues, 217
 - household structure, 216
 - interview guide, 216
 - marginalization, 219–221
 - self-identify, 216
 - self-worth, suicide and self-harm, 219
 - sexual violence, 215
 - social stigma, 218–219
 - response section, 227
 - sexual violence, 211
 - socioeconomic neighborhoods, 211
 - theoretical approach, 214–215
- Survivor guilt
 - community social workers, 104
 - cultures, 106
 - forced displacement, 101, 103
 - grieving process, 104
 - holocaust, 104
 - implications, 108–110
 - literature and stories, 102
 - mental health and wellness, 101–103
 - older refugees, 105
 - phenomenon, 105
 - protective mechanism, 105
 - PTSD, 105
 - recommendations, 111, 112
 - refugee situations, 102
 - research and literature, 102
 - resettlement programs, 103
 - safety, 103
 - self-blame, 105
 - Senior Regional Adviser on Refugee children, 101

- Survivor guilt (cont.)
 slaves, 104 traumatic experience, 105
 tsunami, 102
- Symbolic Interactionism, 268
- T
- Toronto District School Board (TDSB), 226, 290
- Traditional Chinese medicine (TCM), 308
- Trauma-informed practice ancestors, 104
 forced displacement, 101
 informed practice, 111 life-altering experiences, 109 positive relationships, 105 psychological reactions, 108
- Triangulation, 61
- Tsunami, 102, 110
- U
- 1989 United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, 37
- United Nations Security Council (UNSC), 47
- V
- Vietnamese refugee youth, 288
- Violence continuum, 82
- Voices Out of Conflict' conference, 103
- W
- Well-being adolescents' perception, 156, 158 children and adolescents' perspectives, 151 sources, 150, 155
 worries, 147, 156
- Widow, 326–328
- World Bank's Human Development
 Network, 47
- Worries, 152
 adaptive strategies, 158 adolescents, 155–157
 anticipatory cognitive processes, 148 anxiety, 147, 148 blood pressure, 147 causes, 150
 coping strategies, 148, 149, 154, 156 economic/financial concerns, 157 emotion-focused strategies, 156 frequency and intensity, 153, 156, 158 guidance/support, 157 health promotion interventions, families and schools, 158, 159 life satisfaction, 153 life, frequency, and intensity, 154 protective and promotive factors, 158 research methodology
 data analysis, 152
 instrument and procedures, 152 sources of well-being, 155
 well-being and mental health, 148
- Y
- Youth resilience, see Resilience
- Youth self-esteem, 60
- Youth wellbeing, 72
- Youth's cultural identity, 71
- Z
- “Zero Tolerance” policies, 79