Curriculum Vitae

Thijs Bosters obtained his bachelor degree in Dutch law at Tilburg University in 2007. At the same university he finished his Master in Dutch Private Law in 2008.

In 2009, Thijs started as a research fellow at the Tilburg Institute for Law Technology, and Society at Tilburg University. He worked as a Ph.D. Candidate at the Private Law Department and the Tilburg Institute for Interdisciplinary Studies of Civil Law, and Conflict Resolution System from January 2010 till December 2011. In October 2011 he was able to make use of the excellent library and research facilities of the Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law in Hamburg.

Between 2012 and 2017, Thijs worked at NautaDutilh as an attorney-at-law in the Litigation and Arbitration department, while continuing writing his dissertation. On 26 June 2015, Thijs obtained his Doctorate at Tilburg University with a thesis on collective redress and the private international law issues in the European Union. As of 2017, Thijs joined the Dutch Supreme Court as a law clerk.
