

INDEX

- Abioye, A., 22
Abraham, R., 7
Acholi people, Uganda
  about, xiv, 18, 32, 33
  agricultural methods, 25, 26
  ceremonies and rituals, 25, 30, 31
  communal land ownership, 29 community-based research (CBR), xiv, 19, 20, 23, 24, 32
  environmental issues, 31, 32
  food security, 17, 22, 23
  food staples, 25, 27–30
  gender roles, 25
  historical background, 18, 22, 23
  industrial agriculture, 28, 30
  informal learning, 18, 23–25
  knowledge democracy, xiv, 17– 19, 32, 33
  practice, defined, 23, 24
  preservation and storage, 26, 30
  research project, 17, 18, 23, 24
  seeds, 26
  sharing of food, 30–32
  spirituality and food, 29, 31, 32 traditional food practices, xiv, 24, 25
  Western ideologies, 31, 32
  wild foods (hunting, gathering), 27, 28, 31
action research, 19, 20
adult learning. See informal learning;
  learning
AFNs. See alternative food networks
  (AFNs) Africa food security and Western knowledge, 22
  Indigenous/indigenous terminology, 21
  See also Acholi people, Uganda
agricultural methods collective field cultivation, 25
  fallow system, 25
  flood-based farming, 39, 40, 44
  greenhouses, 4, 13, 14, 43
  intercropping, 25
  mound agriculture, 10
  Three Sisters (beans, corn, squash), 9–12, 42
  See also industrial agriculture
Albinsson, P.A., 114
Alinsky, Saul, 66
Alkon, A. H., 59
alternative food movement
  about, 55
  consumer-producer relations, 111, 112 misguided approaches in, 59, 60
  systems thinking, 64, 65
  urban agriculture, 64
  whiteness and cultural dominance, 59
  See also alternative food networks (AFNs); community gardens; food policy councils (FPCs) alternative food networks (AFNs)
  about, 55, 109–112
  alternative, as term, 112
  consciousness-raising, 113
  consumer-producer relations, 111,
    112 European vs. American approaches, 111, 112, 119
  leadership types, xiii
  link of nature and culture, 111 scholarship on, ix, xii
  sustainability, 111
  transformative learning, 113, 114,
    116–119, 138, 139
  See also community gardens; food policy councils (FPCs); wild foods

INDEX

American Indian Quarterly special issue, 142

Australia

food policy councils, 55
historical trauma in Indigenous peoples, 37–39, 46 scholarship on food and learning, xii

Balasescu, A., 73, 86–87

Barnes, K., 131, 132

Bass, B. M., 94

Bateson, G., 110

Baumgartner, L. M., 138, 139

beans, 9–12, 42

Beaugé, Myriam

on community sharing gardens, xv, 73–91

Bharucha, Z., 115

boss texts, xvi, 129–132, 138

See also nonprofit organizations with institutional funding

Bradbury, Hilary, 20

Breman, J., 100

Brigham, Tim

on wild food products, xv, 109–123, 142

BUG (Building Urban Gardens)

Blitzes, Vancouver, 77

Burns, J. M., 94

business community

food deserts, xi, 60
government contracts for local businesses, 147

Buy BC Wild, 120n1

Byres, T.J., 96

Canada

food policy councils, 55

See also community gardens, Toronto, Canada; Edible Garden Project, Vancouver, Canada; food policy councils (FPCs); wild foods, Victoria, Canada

Canada, Indigenous peoples

historical trauma and cultural loss, 7, 37–39, 42, 46

See also Haudenosaunee (Six Nations); Our Sustenance, Six Nations, Canada

Carm, E., 75, 76

ceremonies, Indigenous peoples

Acholi gender roles, 25
Haudenosaunee (Six Nations), 6, 11

oral tradition, 22, 41

physical activity in, 39

relation to food systems, 41

Three Sisters (corn, beans, squash), 11

Tohono O'odham ceremonies, 40

Chambers, L., 7

Chang, C. T., 87

Chaudhury, S. R., 114

Chicago Food Policy Advisory Council, 67

children's education, Indigenous. See schools, Indigenous

Churchill, W., 37

cities. See community gardens; community gardens, Toronto, Canada; Edible Garden Project, Vancouver, Canada; food policy councils (FPCs); urban agriculture class. See food policy councils (FPCs); poverty; social class

Cleaver, H.M., 96, 97

climate change. See environment

collaborative action research, 19, 20 colour, people of. See race and ethnicity commercial food production. See industrial agriculture

community-based research (CBR), xiv, 19, 20, 23, 24, 32

community gardens

- about, 128, 132, 133
- access to public space, 128
- as beautification, 133
- coordinators, 125, 127–129, 132–134, 136–139
- diversity of, 132, 133
- for food production, 133
- food security gardens, 135
- government regulations, 128–131
- incidental learning, 126, 133
- marginalized populations, 138, 139
- See also* Edible Garden Project, Vancouver, Canada
- community gardens, Toronto, Canada
  - about, 125
  - city plans and regulations, 128–131, 133–135, 138
  - clients' lack of ownership of produce, 136
  - clients' needs vs. city regulations, xv, xvi, 125, 129, 136, 137
  - creative city development discourse, 130–132, 138
  - critical institutional literacy, xvi, 125–128, 137–139
  - dignity of participants, 135
  - economic impact of community gardens, 132
  - education vs. food security, 136
  - food banks, 135, 136
  - funding, 136, 137
  - gentrification, 132, 142
  - goals of, 135–136
  - institutional literacy, 126, 127
  - limited space, 128
  - maladaptive learning, xv, xvi, 125
  - marginalized populations, 138, 139, 142
  - research project, 125
  - ruling relations, 125
  - social class, 136
  - waiting lists, 128
  - workplace learning, 125, 126
- See also* community gardens; nonprofit organizations with institutional funding
- consumers
  - activism by, 111, 112
  - critical reflection by, 113, 114
  - ethical purchasing, 111
  - wild food foragers vs. passive consumers, 116, 117, 119
- CookWell, U.K. program evaluation, 149
- corn, 8, 9–12, 42
- corporate food production. See industrial agriculture
- creative class, R. Florida's, xvi, 130–132
- critical approaches
  - critical consciousness, 126
  - critical institutional literacy, 125–128
  - critical literacy, 127
  - critical reflection, xvi, 113, 114, 137–139
- culture and food
  - about, 143
  - festivals and harvests, 43, 114, 115, 120n1
  - food sovereignty, 42, 48–50, 145, 146
  - Indigenous historical trauma and cultural loss, 37–42
  - oral tradition, 11, 22, 41, 45, 46
  - Western vs. Indigenous food systems, 47, 48
- Cumberland, Canada, 147
- Daily Bread Food Bank, Ontario, 8, 9
- Damma, Siri, 7
- Das Gupta, Sejuti
  - on leadership in Gujarat, xv, 93–106, 142
- Davenport, Eileen
  - on wild food products, xv, 109–123, 142

INDEX

- Day Farnsworth, Lindsey
on food policy councils, xv, 55–71, 142
- Declaration of Nyéléni, 49, 50
- Dewey, John, 44, 45
- diseases
food-related diseases (diabetes), 5, 9, 10, 41
food systems and healing, 47, 48
- diversity. See race and ethnicity;
social class
- Dixit, A. N., 97
- domain-based leaders, xiii
- dominant agriculture paradigm. See
industrial agriculture
- Doxtater, M., 6, 10–12
- Edible Garden Project, Vancouver,
Canada
about, xv, 74–76, 88, 89
community with shared values, 74, 75, 82, 83, 86, 87
concept map, 77, 78
cultural diversity, 88, 89 delivery of food, 77, 78, 82, 83 dignity of clients, 79, 82, 83 ecological stewardship, 79–82
expansive learning, 75, 76
food literacy, xv, 74, 79, 88 goal to grow and donate food, 74, 87 multisensory experiences, xv, 76, 77–80, 88
networked leaders, xv, 76–78, 88, 89 research project, xv, 75–77
sharing gardens (donated areas), 74, 84, 85
social service partners, 74, 77, 78
sustainability, 74–76, 79–86
See also community gardens;
nonprofit organizations with
institutional funding
- Edmonds-Cady, C., 87
- education. See informal learning;
learning; schools, Indigenous
- Egbergongbe, H. S., 22
- embarrassment. See stigma
- environment
about, x, xi
climate change (Uganda), 23, 30 food security (Uganda), 17 food waste, x, xi industrial agriculture’s impact on, x, xi
systems thinking, 46–48
- ethnography, defined, 24
- Etmanski, Catherine
conclusion by, xvi, 141–153
introduction by, ix–xviii
- European vs. American AFNs, 111, 112, 119
- expansive learning, 75, 76
- FAO (Food and Agriculture Organization), UN
food security, 4, 22, 23, 145, 148
- farmer’s markets, 4, 14, 59
- farms, commercial. See industrial agriculture
- Fiddler, T., 7
- Florida, Richard, 130–132
- Flowers, R., xii, 109, 110, 142
- food about, vii, ix, 110, 111, 141, 143 food democracy, 114
human-nature connection, 111, 113 identities and food, 109–111, 117 interdisciplinary approaches, vii, ix, 143, 144
as metaphor, 110
as site for adult education, 141
See also culture and food
- Food, Inc.* (film), xii
- food banks
Daily Bread Food Bank program,
Ontario, 8, 9

- Greater Vancouver Food Bank (GVFB), 73, 146, 147
- social innovation, 146, 147
- statistics on, 146
- stigma of, 82, 83
- The Stop, Ontario, 8, 9, 135
- systems thinking, 64
- food justice
  - about, 58, 143
  - AFNs and civic virtues, 111
  - defined, 58
  - food deserts, xi, 60
  - food policy councils, 55, 56
  - food waste, x
  - Indigenous food sovereignty, 42, 48–50, 145, 146
  - interdisciplinary approaches, 143, 144
  - social movements and internal contradictions, 142
  - systems thinking, 64, 149–151
  - transformative learning, 138, 139
  - women in food systems, 50n3
  - See also* alternative food movement; alternative food networks (AFNs); food policy councils (FPCs); poverty
- food leadership. See leadership
- food literacy
  - about, 74, 79
  - critical consciousness, 126
  - critical literacy, 127
  - defined, 74, 126
  - Edible Garden Project, xv, 74, 79, 88
  - institutional literacy, 125, 126, 127
  - multisensory experiences, xv, 76, 77–80, 88
- FoodMate, Australian program
  - evaluation, 149
- food policy councils (FPCs)
  - about, xv, 55, 56, 68, 69, 142
  - critical questions, xv, 56
  - diversity and inclusivity, 57, 58, 63, 64, 66–68
  - educational initiatives, 66, 67
  - expectations of, 63–65
  - food justice, 58
  - funding, 57, 58, 62
  - goals, 58, 64, 65
  - grassroots coalitions, 57, 58, 60–62, 68, 69
  - leadership development, 65–68
  - meeting protocols and agendas, 58, 59, 61–63, 66, 67
  - membership, 58–61, 63
  - misguided approaches, 59–61
  - political context, 57, 58, 61, 68, 69
  - race and social class issues, 56–61, 64, 66, 67
  - research project, xv, 56, 57
  - scholarship on, 57
  - statistics on, 55, 64
  - systems thinking, 64
- Food Security* (Maxwell), 144
- food security/insecurity
  - about, 4, 22, 23, 144–146
  - advocacy for systems transformation, 146, 147
  - causes of insecurity, 144, 145
  - FAO statements on, 4, 22, 23, 145, 148
  - food preferences, 145
  - future directions, 141
  - impact of initiatives, 146–149
  - Indigenous food systems, xiv, 4, 5, 11, 17, 145, 146
  - innovations, 146–149
  - program assessments, 141, 148, 149
  - scales of analysis, 48, 144, 148
  - social procurement, 147, 148
  - See also* food banks; food systems transformation; poverty; stigma
- FoodShare Toronto, 9
- food systems transformation
  - about, x, xi, 46–48, 142

INDEX

- accountability, 148
- critical consciousness, 126, 127
- critical institutional literacy, 126, 127
- critical questions, 148
- forager-consumers as change agents, 117
- industrial vs. natural food, 111
- innovations, 146–149
- interdisciplinary approaches, 143, 144
- leadership for transformation, xiii, 142
- permaculture approach to systems thinking, 149–151
- program assessments, 141, 148, 149
- scales of analysis, 48, 144, 148
- scholarship on, ix, x, xi–xiii, 142, 143, 148
- systems thinking, 46–48, 64, 149–151
- unintended consequences, 142
- visionary leaders, xiii, xiv, 142
See also leadership; learning
- food waste, x
- forager-consumers, 116, 117, 119
See also wild foods
- formal and informal learning. See informal learning; learning; schools, Indigenous
- Forum for Food Sovereignty, 49, 50
- FPCs. See food policy councils (FPCs)
- Francisco, Anthony, 45–47
- Freire, Paulo, 44, 45

- Gallagher, D. R., xiv
- Ganz, Marshall, 65
- gender
  - gender roles (Acholi), 25
  - scholarship on, xii
  - women in food systems, 50n3, 97
- Gidwani, V., 97

- GMO (genetically modified foods), x, 8–10, 26
- Goodall, Vanessa
  - conclusion by, xvi, 141–153
- good food movement. See alternative food movement
- Goodman, D. and M., 111
- Gottlieb, R., 67
- government. See public policy
- Graedel, T. E., 86
- grassroots movements
  - about, 73, 74
  - food policy councils (FPCs), 57, 58, 60–62, 68, 69
  - leadership types, xiii
  - Native Americans, 38, 39
- Greater Vancouver Food Bank (GVFB), 73, 146, 147
- greenhouse gases, x
- Green Revolution, xi, 95, 97, 104n3
- Growing Power, xiii
- Gujarat, agriculture
  - about, xv, 96, 97
  - cash crops, 96, 97, 99, 101
  - cotton (BT), 97, 99, 101
  - critical questions, 93
  - dairy farms, 98
  - elites, 95, 100–102
  - farm credit system, 99
  - floriculture, 98, 99
  - food insecurity, xv, 93
  - food justice, xv, 97
  - Green Revolution, 104n3
  - high value crops, 98, 99
  - industrial agriculture, xv, 95–102, 104n3
  - infrastructure, 97, 98, 104n4
  - labour laws, 102, 103
  - leadership, 93–96
  - market access, 100
  - Modi’s pseudo-transformational leadership, 101–103
  - policy vision, 100, 101
  - poverty, 93, 97
  - research project, 95, 96

- seeds, 97, 99
 small farmers and labourers, 97–103
See also India; Modi, Narendra
 Gujarat Green revolution Company (GGRC), 98
 Guthman, J., 59
 GVFB (Greater Vancouver Food Bank), 73, 146, 147
- Hager, P., 21, 22
 Halliday, J., 21, 22
 Hassanein, N., 112
 Haudenosaunee (Six Nations)
 about, xiv, 3–5
 agricultural practices, 6, 9, 10
 culture and food, 4–6, 10–12, 15
 economic leakage, 6, 7
 food options, 6–8
 food security, 4–6, 11
 GMO threat to traditional foods, 8, 9
 identity and food, 4–6
 interdependence, 3, 10, 11
 Longhouse (belief system), 6, 11
 “Longhouse to the greenhouse,” 3, 4 poverty and gardening, 7, 8
 staple foods, 6, 9–12
 Three Sisters (corn, beans, squash), 9–12
 traditional knowledge, 3, 6
See also Our Sustenance, Six Nations, Canada
- health
 food-related diseases (diabetes), 5, 9, 10, 41
 food systems and healing, 47, 48
 Herrick, C., 59
 Holmgren, David, 149
 Holt-Giménez, E., x, 145 human rights. See food justice hunger as symptom of poverty, xvi, 12, 134, 135
- See also* food security/insecurity; poverty hunting, 27, 28
See also wild foods
- illnesses. See diseases
 incidental learning, 126
- India
 about, 93–95
 Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), 103, 104n1
 food insecurity, xv, 93
 Green Revolution, 104n3
 infrastructure, 97, 98 political leadership trends, 104n1
 poverty, 97
 rural-urban migration, 101
 tribals, as term, 97
See also Gujarat, agriculture; Modi, Narendra
- Indigenous peoples
 about, xiv
 community-based research (CBR), xiv, 19, 20, 23, 24, 32
 culture and food, 4, 5, 7, 11, 12, 17
 economic leakage, 6, 7
 food-related health problems, 5, 9, 10, 41 holistic and interdisciplinary, 21, 145
 identity and food, 4–7
 knowledge creation, 20, 21
 knowledge democracy, 17, 19, 20
 systems thinking, 46–48
 traditional knowledge, xiv, 6, 20, 21, 142
See also Acholi people, Uganda; Haudenosaunee (Six Nations); oral tradition; schools, Indigenous; Tohono O’odham Nation, United States
- Indigenous food systems
 about, xiv, 41, 142, 145, 146

INDEX

- culture and food, 4, 5, 7, 10, 11, 17, 47, 48
- Declaration of Nyéléni, 49, 50
- dual economies (subsistence and markets), 7, 48–50
- economic leakage to non-Indigenous food sources, 41
- educational programs, xiv, 4
- food leadership, xiv
- food policy councils, 55
- food security, xiv, 4, 5, 11, 145, 146
- food sovereignty, 37, 38, 42, 48–50, 145, 146
- future trends, 142
- in global food system, 48–50
- GMO threat to traditional foods, 8–10, 26
- interdependence as value, 3, 9–11, 41, 145
- knowledge democracy, xiv
- loss of Indigenous food systems, 41, 42
- scholarship on, 142
- staple foods, 9–12
- sustainable subsistence, 7, 10, 11
- systems thinking, 46–48
- Three Sisters (corn, beans, squash), 9–12, 42
- Western vs. Indigenous food systems, 46–48
- wild foods, 112, 115, 118, 142
- See also* Acholi people, Uganda; New Generation, Tohono O’odham, United States; Our Sustenance, Six Nations, Canada; schools, Indigenous
- industrial agriculture
  - about, x, xi, 97, 111
  - floriculture, 98, 99
  - food leadership, xiii
  - GMO contamination of non-GM crops, x, 8–10, 26
  - Green Revolution, xi, 95, 97, 104n3
  - in Gujarat, xv, 95–102
  - input centricity, 96, 97
  - negative impacts of, x, xi
  - scholarship on, xiii
  - in Uganda, 28, 30
- informal learning
  - about, 21, 22, 125, 126
  - experimentation, 44
  - farmer-educators, xiii
  - formal vs. informal, 21
  - hands-on training, 44
  - incidental learning, 126, 133
  - interdisciplinary learning, 21, 22
  - intergenerational learning, 13, 22, 25
  - knowledge democracy, 17
  - oral tradition, 22, 45, 46
  - “teach a man to fish,” 43–44
  - types of leaders, xiii
  - wild food consumers, 114
  - workplace learning, 125, 126
- insecurity, food. See food security/insecurity
- institutional literacy, 126, 127
- interdependence
  - Indigenous value systems, 3, 9–11, 41, 145
  - Three Sisters (corn, beans, squash), 9–12
- intergenerational learning, 13, 22, 25
- International Leadership Association, xiii
- Iroquois. See Haudenosaunee (Six Nations)
- Johnson, Terrol Dew
  - on New Generation program of Tohono O’odham, xiv, 37–52
- justice, food. See food justice
- Jyotigram Yojana (JGY), 97, 98

- Kaak, Paul, xiii, xiv, 142
 Kajzer Mitchell, Ingrid
   on wild food products, xv, 109– 123, 142
 Kelloff, A., xii
 Kerton, S., 113, 115, 116, 119
 Kesavan, P.C., xi
 Khan, M. H., 95
Kill the Indian, Save the Man
 (Churchill), 37
 knowledge
   expansive learning, 75, 76
   food systems and interdisciplinary approaches, 143, 144
   knowledge systems, 23 lay vs. scientific, xii literacy, defined, 74 recovery of Indigenous knowledge, 142
   Western vs. Indigenous food systems, 47, 48
 knowledge democracy
   about, 19
   community-based research, 19, 20, 32 critique of Food, Inc., xii
   defined, 17
   Indigenous knowledge (Uganda),
   32, 33
 Kuhnert, K., 95
- Ladner, Peter, 86, 87
 Langer, Christopher on maladaptive learning, xv, xvi, 125–140
 language loss and food, 39
 Leach, E.R., 111
 leadership
   about, xii–xiv, 65, 66, 94, 95, 143, 144 behaviouralism, 94
   civic engagement, 65, 66
   contested concept of, xiv
   defined, 143
   domain-based leaders, xiii
   elitism, 95
   expansive learning, 75, 76
   farmer-educators, xiii, xiv
   food policy councils (FPCs), 65– 68 innovators, xiii, xiv, 146–149
   interdisciplinary approaches, 143, 144
   Kaak’s matrix of, xiii, xiv, 142 learning and leadership, 141 mobilisers, xiii, xiv moral qualities, 94
   networked leaders, xiii, xiv, xv, 76–78, 88
   permaculture approach to systems thinking, 149–151
   Plato’s philosopher-king, 94 pluralism, 95
   researchers, xiii scholarship on, ix, x, xiii, xiv, 94, 95, 142, 143
   settlement, 95
   systems thinking, 149–151
   transactional vs. transformational, 93–96
   visionary leaders, xiii, xiv, 142
   Weber’s qualities (charisma, legality, and tradition), 94
- learning
   about, xi, xii, 143, 144 critical reflection, xi, 44–46, 50
   expansive learning, 75, 76
   Freire’s approach, 44, 45 historical trauma in Indigenous peoples, 37–39, 46
   incidental learning, 126, 133
   marginalised people, xi
   miseducation, 126
   models for food programs, xiv, 50 performance vs. understanding, 137 physical activity, 5
   scholarship on, ix, x, xi, xii, 109, 110, 142, 143
   “teach a man to fish,” 43, 44

INDEX

- Western vs. Indigenous food systems, 47, 48
 workplace learning, 125, 126
See also informal learning;
 schools, Indigenous legends. See oral tradition Levkoe, C. Z., 111, 112, 114, 117
 Lewis, P., 95
 Lickers Xavier, Adrienne on Indigenous food programs, xiv, 3–16, 141, 142, 145 literacy, food. See food literacy
 Lopez, Danny, 39
 Los Angeles Food Policy Council, 58, 67, 68
 Loutet Farm, Vancouver, 74 Low, Will
   on wild food products, xv, 109–123, 142
- MacRae, R., 110, 111
 Madison Food Policy Council, 56
See also food policy councils (FPCs)
- maladaptive learning about, xv, xvi, 125, 126
   boss texts, xvi, 129–132
   client's needs vs. institutional regulations, xv, xvi, 129, 142
   miseducation, 126
See also community gardens, Toronto, Canada; nonprofit organizations with institutional funding
- Malarvannan, S., xi
 Manuel, Frances, 39
 Matsuoka, M., 67
 Maxwell, Simon, 144
 McClintock, N., 64
 McCullen, C. G., 59
 McLaren, P., 127
 mentorship. See informal learning
 Mexico
- Sonoran Desert (U.S. and Mexico), 39, 40
See also Tohono O'odham Nation, United States
- Mezirow, J., 113, 114, 116, 137
 Micheletti, M., 111
 Milwaukee Food Council, 58, 67
 miseducation, 126
 Modi, Narendra
   about, xv, 93, 94, 101–103
   Chief Minister of Gujarat, 93, 94, 97 industrial agriculture, xv, 102 leadership style, xv, 96, 97 motivation of, 93, 95, 100
   policy vision, 100, 101
   Prime Minister, 94, 103 promotion of industrial elite, 97, 100, 102, 103
   transactional vs. pseudo-transformational, 101–103
See also Gujarat, agriculture
- Mollison, Bill, 149
 Morales, A., xii
 “More than the Sum of Their Parts” (Day Farnsworth), 57
 Morrison, Dawn, 41, 42, 48
 mound agriculture, 10
 multinational corporations. See industrial agriculture municipal government. See public policy Murcott, A., 142
 myths. See oral tradition
- Native Americans
   grassroots movements, 38, 39
   historical trauma and cultural loss, 37–42, 46
See also Indigenous peoples; Tohono O'odham Nation, United States
- neoliberalism creative cities, 132

- exclusion through bureaucratization, 142
 gentrification, 132, 142
 impact on food security, 64, 142
 industrial agriculture, xi
 marginalized populations, 132
 market-driven policies, 142
 scholarship on, xii
 New Generation, Tohono O'odham,
     United States
     about, xiv, 37, 42, 43, 50
     critical reflection, 44–46, 50
     experimentation, 44
     festivals and events, 43
     flood-based farming, 39, 40, 44
     food justice curriculum, 47, 48, 50
     food sovereignty, 37, 42, 48–50, 145, 146
     historical trauma and cultural loss, 37–42
     informal learning, 43, 44
     restaurants and job training, 43 scales of programs, 48, 50
     school meals, 43
     systems thinking, 46–48
     “teach a man to fish,” 43, 44, 50n3 transformative education, xiv, 42– 46
     wild foods, 42
 Ng, E., xii non-formal learning. See informal learning
 nonprofit organizations with institutional funding
     about, xv, xvi, 125–128
     access to resources, 127
     boss texts, xvi, 129–132
     client's needs vs. institutional regulations, xv, xvi, 125, 127, 129, 142
     critical institutional literacy, 125, 126, 127
     critical reflection on practices, xvi, 125–128, 137–139 educational role in systemic change, 138, 139
     goals of, 134, 135
     government regulations, 128–131, 134, 135
     institutional literacy, 126, 127
     maladaptive learning, xv, xvi, 125
     neoliberal bureaucratization, 142
     research project, 125
     ruling relations, 125, 127
     transformational learning, 138, 139
     workplace learning, 125, 126
     See also community gardens,
         Toronto, Canada; food policy councils (FPCs) non-timber forest products (NTFP), 112
 North America
     food policy councils, 55
     See also food policy councils
         (FPCs)
 North Shore Community Garden
     Society, Vancouver, 74, 78, 82
 Nyéléni, Declaration of, 49, 50

 Ocitti, J. P., 24
 Ontario
     governance of community gardens, 133
     See also community gardens,
         Toronto, Canada; Toronto,
         Canada
 Ontario, Indigenous peoples. See
     Haudenosaunee (Six Nations);
     Our Sustenance, Six Nations,
     Canada
 O'odham. See Tohono O'odham Nation, United States
 Openjuru, George Ladaah on Indigenous knowledge in Uganda, xiv, 17–35
 oral tradition
     creation story (Haudenosaunee), 11

INDEX

- cultural loss (Tohono O'odham), 39, 41
- food stories (Tohono O'odham), 45, 46
- informal learning, 22
- organic foods and farms
  - critical reflection by consumers, 116
  - food leadership, 110
  - Indigenous food programs, 14
  - permaculture, 149–151
  - scholarship on, 115
- Our Sustenance, Six Nations, Canada
  - about, xiv, 3–5, 13–15
  - community and kitchen gardens, 4, 8
  - critical questions, 4
  - educational programs, 4
  - Elders as leaders, 7, 8
  - farmer's market, 4, 14
  - food choices, 6
  - food security, 3, 4, 5, 11–13
  - food sovereignty, 3, 145, 146
  - future trends, 14
  - GMO threat to traditional foods, 8, 9
  - greenhouses, 4, 13, 14
  - historical background, 3
  - interdependence, 3, 10, 11
  - physical activity, 5
  - poverty and gardening, 7, 8
  - research project, 3, 12, 14, 15
  - school gardens, 13, 14
  - seed savers, 4, 8, 13, 14
  - Three Sisters (corn, beans, squash), 9–12
  - traditional knowledge, 3, 4, 6, 14, 15
  - See also* Haudenosaunee (Six Nations)
- Packer, M. M., 58, 61
- Pancho, Katherine, 38
- participatory action research (PAR), 19, 20
- Peck, J., 131, 132
- pedagogy. See learning; schools, Indigenous
- permaculture, 141, 149–151
- pesticides, xi
- physical activity, 5, 39, 40
- Pimbert, Michel, 48
- population trends, 73
- poverty
  - about, 59, 60
  - advocacy for systems transformation, 146, 147
  - alternative food movement's misperceptions, 59, 60
  - boss texts and nonprofits, xvi, 129–132, 138
  - food deserts, xi, 60
  - food security, 142
  - hunger as symptom, xvi, 134–138
  - Indigenous peoples, 7, 8, 41
  - neoliberal policies, 64
  - stigma of, 12
  - systems thinking, 64
  - See also* food policy councils (FPCs); food security/insecurity
- Poverty and Famines* (Sen), 144, 145
- Power, E. M., 17
- Preece, J., 20–22
- preservation and storage
  - Indigenous knowledge, 26, 27, 30
  - seed selection, 26
  - Three Sisters (corn, beans, squash), 9
- Pretty, J., 115
- processed foods. See industrial agriculture
- Public Allies, 67
- public policy
  - asset-based approaches, 60
  - boss texts, xvi, 129–132
  - food deserts, 60

- Indigenous food sovereignty, 40, 41, 145, 146
- Indigenous leadership, 13, 14
- regulation of community gardens, 128–131, 134, 135
- See also* Gujarat, agriculture
- quinoa, 49
- Quintana, M., xii
- race and ethnicity
- alternative food movement, 59
  - anti-racism training, 67
  - community sharing gardens, 88, 89
  - food policy councils, 58–61, 67
  - scholarship on anti-racism, 59
  - whiteness and cultural dominance, 58–61
- See also* Indigenous peoples
- Reader, Tristan
- on New Generation program of Tohono O’odham, xiv, 37–52
- Reardon, P. T., vii
- Reason, Peter, 20
- residential schools, 37–39, 46
- Rhode Island Food Policy Council, 61
- The Rise of the Creative Class* (Florida), 131, 132
- Sardar Sarovar Dam (SSD), 98
- Schmitz, Paul, 65, 66, 68
- schools, Indigenous
- gardens and greenhouses, 13, 14, 43
  - historical trauma and cultural loss, 37–42, 46
  - informal learning, 21, 22
  - intergenerational learning, 13
  - residential schools, 37–39, 46
  - school meals, 43
  - school policies on junk foods, 12
  - teaching strategies, 13, 14
  - traditional knowledge, 13, 14, 21
- seeds
- about, xi
  - GMO threat to Indigenous foods, 8–10, 26
  - Indigenous knowledge, 26
  - Indigenous seed savers, 8, 13, 14
  - industrial agriculture, xi, 99
  - Western vs. Indigenous food systems, 47, 48
- Seeds of Sustainability* (Beaugé), 75
- self-directed learning, 113, 114
- See also* informal learning
- Sen, Amartya, 144, 145
- sensory ethnography, 76
- shame. See stigma
- Shane, A.M., 86
- shea trees, 27, 28
- Shiva, Vandana, ix
- Shop the Wild, Victoria, 114, 115, 120n1
- Sinclair, J., 113, 115, 116, 119
- Sinha, A., 102
- Six Nations
- historical background, 3, 6
  - See also* Haudenosaunee (Six Nations); Our Sustenance, Six Nations, Canada
- Slocum, R., 58, 59
- Socha, T., 7
- social class
- food policy councils, 59–61
  - scholarship on, xii
  - See also* food policy councils (FPCs); poverty; race and ethnicity
- social justice and food. See food justice
- social literacy, 126
- social media, xii, 112
- social procurement advocates, 147
- Sonoran Desert (U.S. and Mexico), 39, 40
- sorghum, 26

INDEX

- Sosulski, M., 87
- sovereignty, Indigenous food, 42, 48–50, 145, 146
See also Indigenous food systems
- spirituality
  food and spirituality, 29, 31, 32
  informal learning, 22
- squash, 9–12, 42
- Stang, Jamie, 46, 47
- stigma
  community sharing gardens, 82, 83
  food banks, 82, 83
  of poverty and hunger, 12, 134, 135
- The Stop program, Ontario, 8, 9, 135
- storage. See preservation and storage
- storytelling. See oral tradition
- Struggling with the Creative Class* (Peck), 131, 132
- Studies in the Education of Adults*
  food issue, ix, xii, 110
- Sud, N., 100, 102, 103
- Sumner, Jennifer, xi, xii, 109, 113, 142
- sustainability
  ethical considerations, 73, 86, 87
  expansive learning, 75, 76
  flattened model, 87
  leadership, 88, 89
  life without economic growth, 86, 87
  systems thinking, 116
  transformative learning, 113, 114, 116–119
  wild foods and awareness of, 109, 110
- Swan, E., xii, 109, 110, 142
- systems, food. See food systems transformation; Indigenous food systems
- systems thinking, 46–48, 64, 149–151
- “teach a man to fish,” 43, 44
- Three Sisters (beans, corn, squash), 9–12, 42
- Tohono O’odham Nation, United States about, xiv, 39, 40, 50n1
  ceremonies and rituals, 40, 41
  community action group (TOCA), xiv, 42, 43 disease and illness, 41 economic leakage to non-Indigenous food sources, 41, 50n1 elders as visionary leaders, 39
  flood-based farming, 39, 40, 44
  food sovereignty, 40, 48–50, 145, 146
  food staples, 40, 42, 47
  historical trauma and cultural loss, 37–42
  informal education, 38
  oral tradition, 39, 45, 46
  physical activity, 40
  poverty and unemployment, 41, 50n1
  traditional knowledge, xiv, 40
  wild foods (hunting and gathering), 40, 42
See also New Generation, Tohono O’odham, United States
- Toronto, Canada
  creative city development discourse, 130–132
  place in global economy, 130–132 plans and regulations for community gardens, 128–131, 133–135, 138
See also community gardens, Toronto, Canada
- traditional culture. See Indigenous peoples; Indigenous food systems
- transactional vs. transformational leadership, India, 93–96
- transformative learning
  disorienting dilemma, 116

- nonprofits with institutional funding, 138, 139
- wild foods, xv, 109, 110, 112–114, 116–119
See also food systems transformation
- tribal food systems. See Indigenous food systems
- Uganda
 historical background, xiv, 17, 18
 Indigenous/indigenous terminology, 21
See also Acholi people, Uganda
- United Kingdom
 food policy councils, 55
- United States
 food policy councils, 55
See also food policy councils (FPCs)
- United States, Indigenous peoples
 historical background, xiv, 37–41
 Sonoran Desert, 39, 40
See also New Generation, Tohono O’odham, United States; Tohono O’odham Nation, United States
- University of California, Santa Cruz, 59
- University of Wisconsin-Madison Community & Regional Food Systems Project, 56
See also food policy councils (FPCs)
- urban agriculture
 alternative food movement, 64
 community gardens, 128, 132, 133
See also community gardens; community gardens, Toronto, Canada; Edible Garden Project, Vancouver, Canada; food policy councils (FPCs)
- Vancouver, Canada, 73–75, 89
See also Edible Garden Project, Vancouver, Canada
- Vancouver Coastal Health (VCH), 74, 88
- Victoria, Canada, 110
See also wild foods, Victoria, Canada
- visionary leaders, xiii, xiv, 39, 142
- vulnerable populations. See food policy councils (FPCs); food security/insecurity; poverty; race and ethnicity; stigma
- Weber, Max, 94
- Welsh, J., 110, 111
- Welton, M., 114
- Western knowledge. See knowledge
- Wheatley, Margaret, 66
- Whitbeck, L. B., 39
- whiteness and cultural dominance, 58–61
See also race and ethnicity
- wild foods
 about, xv, 109–112, 118, 119
 commercialization of, 110, 117 costs and distribution, 115, 116, 118
 defined, 109, 115, 118
 future trends, 142
 human-nature connection, xv, 113
 Indigenous cultures, 112, 115, 118, 142 informal vs. formal learning, 114, 115
 scholarship on, 109, 110
 in Sonoran Desert, 40, 42
 sustainability awareness, xv, 109, 110, 115, 116
 transformative learning, xv, 109, 110, 112–114, 116–119
 in Uganda, 27, 28
See also alternative food movement; alternative food networks (AFNs)

INDEX

- wild foods, Victoria, Canada
  - about, 110–113, 118, 119
  - American vs. European AFNs, 111, 112, 119
  - cash-economy production, 112, 117
  - change agents, 117
  - consciousness-raising, 112, 113
  - costs and distribution, 115, 116, 118, 120n1
  - critical questions, 113, 114
  - defined, 109, 115, 118
  - festivals and cultural events, 114, 115, 120n1
  - forager-consumer vs. passive consumer, 116, 117, 119
  - future research, xv, 119
  - non-timber forest products (NTFP), 112
  - research project, 110, 114–117
  - subsistence consumption, 112
  - sustainability awareness, xv, 109, 110, 115, 116
  - transformative learning, xv, 109, 110, 112–114, 116–119
  - workplace learning, 125, 126
- Zahaf, M., 7
- Zaid, Y., 22
- Zuber-Skerritt, O., 141