Acknowledgements

Many thanks go to Jo Campling, who has been most helpful, and also to Annabelle Buckley at Macmillan. I very much appreciate the comments of the anonymous reader, which were most useful.

The library of University College London has been a lode-mine of material in researching this book, and I thank the staff for their help.

I am very grateful to my own clients, whose life-stories have taught me more than any textbook could.

Several people have listened to me tirelessly as I went through the inevitable ups and downs involved in writing this book – I am particularly grateful to Sybilla Madigan and Victoria Zinovieff.

Thanks and love to Rachel Floater for being there.
