ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would first like to thank my doctoral supervisor, Associate Professor Daniel Brown, for his invaluable advice, encouragement, and tolerance of my haunting presence for so many years. I wish to thank the Faculty of Arts, Humanities, and Social Science at the University of Western Australia for the assistance provided through a postdoctoral publication grant. I would also like to thank my parents, family, and friends for the years of support and tolerance they have provided. Lastly, I want to thank Ealhsie, without whom I would never have finished this manuscript.
