Acknowledgments

Over the last several years, I have benefitted from the support and friendship of a number of different colleagues at several different institutions. I would like to acknowledge the following individuals who provided me with unqualified support as I pursued the difficult themes in this book: Noam Chomsky, Timothy Brennan, Grant Farred, Keya Ganguly, Dominick LaCapra, Robert Jensen, John Mearsheimer, M. Shahid Alam, Michael Kleine, and Kim Petersen, editor of Dissident Voice. I would also like to thank Sara Nathan, Mara Berkoff, and Erin Ivy at Palgrave Macmillan and Jason Hughes at Scribe for moving the book through the production process. Finally, I must thank my wife, Christine, and my son, Benjamin, for standing by me during some very trying times.

The chapters in this book were developed out of the following essays:

- “Suicide Bombing and the Last Colonial War: The Fanonian Specter in Palestine.” The South Atlantic Quarterly 112.1 (Winter 2013).
- “Simply Said: Edward Said and the New York Intellectuals.” The New York Intellectuals and Beyond. Eds. Dan Goffman and Daniel Morris. West Lafayette: Purdue University Press, 2008.
- “Tracing the Discourse of Defiance: Remembering Edward Said Through the Resistance of the Palestinian Intifada.” Nebula: A Journal of Multidisciplinary Scholarship 2.2 (2005).
- “Territorial Ambition: Edward Said’s Unmasking of the Intellectual’s Complicity with State Expansion,” Paradoxical

Citizenship: Essays on Edward Said, Ed. Silvia Nagy-Zekmi.
Lanham, MD: Lexington, 2008.

“Alan Wald’s The New York Intellectuals and the Discourse of Shifting Alliances: Anticommunist Liberalism, Neo-Conservatism, and the Rise of Israelism as a Manifestation of Jewish Nationalism.” Reconstruction 8.1 (2008).

“Obama’s Cairo Speech: Beyond the Rhetoric and Politics of Good Muslim and Bad Muslim.” The Making of Barack Obama: The Politics of Persuasion (Anderson, SC: Parlor, 2013).

I would like to thank the editors of these journals and books for granting me permission to draw on these articles for the chapters in the book.
