ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The beginning of this collection of essays was a seminar for the Shakespeare Association of America that met in Montreal in 2000. Our thanks to the SAA and Lena Orlin, Executive Director, all of the participants and the commentators, Ilona Bell, and Steven May. As well as the essays that came out of the seminar, several of the essays in this collection were presented under the auspices of the Society for the Study of Early Modern Women at the Sixteenth Century Studies Conference in Denver 2001. We very much appreciate the help of R. Emmet McLaughlin, President of the Sixteenth Century Studies Conference for that year, and Ronald Fritze, Secretary of the organization, for their help in scheduling these sessions. The editors at Palgrave were wonderful people with whom to work. We are most appreciative of Rohana Kenin for her work on the index.

Carole wishes to express her deep appreciation for the Humanities Program and the UCARE program at the University of Nebraska for their generous support. She would also like to thank the graduate students at the University of Nebraska in her queenship seminar for their valuable perspectives and suggestive discussions. Carolyn Bilotto, Jarrod Brand, Christine Couvillon, Timothy Elston, and Teri Imus were most helpful in providing research support. She also greatly appreciates the expert and thoughtful help of the librarians at Love Library at the University of Nebraska, especially Gretchen Holten Poppler and Kathy Johnson, and in Special Collections, Mary Ellen Ducey and Carmella Garman Orosco. She was delighted with the opportunity to work again with her wonderful colleagues and co-editors, Debra and Jo.

Jo is most grateful to The College of New Jersey for released time to work on this project. She also very much appreciates the support of her family—Sandy, Alex, Julie, and Annie. Debra is most appreciative of the support of the College of Santa Fe, where she taught previously, and to the faculty and staff at Fogelson Library at the College of Santa Fe, particularly Matthew Clinton, Allison Aran, Peggy Rudberg, R. David Myers, Margaret Johnson, Rebecca Schwilling, Daria Carson, and Harriet Meiklejohn.
