Over many years the questions set by the various Examination Boards have stimulated and enhanced the teaching of mathematics throughout education. Everyone involved in mathematics, both the teachers and the taught, owes a debt to the Boards for the ever-present challenge that new examination questions bring to mathematics education.

Once again our thanks go to everyone who has helped with the preparation of this book, especially to Nicholas who, with nimble fingers, processed our indifferent typing into an acceptable form.

We shall be greatly indebted to anyone notifying us of any errors.

The author and publishers wish to thank the following who have kindly given permission for the use of copyright material:

The Associated Examining Board, the Southern Universities' Joint Board, the University of London School Examinations Board and the University of Oxford Delegacy of Local Examinations for questions from past examination papers.

Every effort has been made to trace all the copyright holders but if any have been inadvertently overlooked the publishers will be pleased to make the necessary arrangement at the first opportunity.
