Urban Sociology, Capitalism and Modernity

SOCIOLOGY FOR A CHANGING WORLD

Series Editors: Janet Finch and Graham Allan

Founding Editor: Roger King

This series, published in conjunction with the British Sociological Association, evaluates and reflects major developments in contemporary sociology. The books focus on key changes in social and economic life in recent years and on the ways in which the discipline of sociology has analysed those changes. They reflect the state of the art in contemporary British sociology, while at the same time drawing upon comparative material to set debates in an international perspective.

Acknowledgements

It is extremely rewarding, though also frustrating, to write a book when the field is changing so fast. This is a book that changed many times in the making, and which made us read and think until the last minute. Many thanks to all those who have helped us by talking to us, making comments, and giving general advice. In particular Mike Savage would like to thank students on his workshop at Keele University on urban sociology in 1990 for helping him to realise some of the limitations of existing work (and textbooks!) in the field.

Frances Arnold, our publishing editor, has been very supportive. Janet Finch helped to commission the volume, and she and Graham Allan commented helpfully on drafts. The following people have commented on the whole or parts: Peter Dickens; Helen Hills; Brian Longhurst; Chris Pickvance; Greg Smith; Gerry Stoker; Adam Tickell; John Urry; and Paul Watt. Versions of Chapter 2 were presented by Mike Savage to the Urban and Regional Studies Seminar, University of Sussex, December 1990, and by Alan Warde to the Department of Sociology, University of Melbourne, at Easter 1991. Versions of Chapter 6 were presented by Mike Savage to the Urban Change and Conflict Conference at Lancaster University, September 1991, and to the Department of Sociology, University of Salford, May 1992. Many thanks for the comments received.

Finally, on a personal note, Mike Savage would like to thank Helen Hills for her love and support. Virtually our first conversation was about our mutual interest in urbanism, and it led to fine things.
