Acknowledgements

We have worked together as researchers in the field of young people and homelessness since 1988. This book has been very much a joint endeavour. Responsibility for the research and the writing has shifted between us on a number of occasions.

We would like to thank the funding bodies who made this possible – the Joseph Rowntree Foundation and the Children’s Society. We are also grateful for the support of our two departments – the Department of Sociology and Anthropology, University College Swansea, and the Department of Social Policy and Administration, London School of Economics.

We would like to thank the following for their comments on and contributions to the text: Chris Harris and John Hutson, University College Swansea; Kay Parry, West Glamorgan Probation Service; Maurice Cove, South Glamorgan Social Services; Mandy Jones and Bridget Price, Swansea City Housing Department; Irene Glasser, Eastern Connecticut State University; Karen Ingram, Network, Cardiff; and Graham White, Liverpool Institute of Higher Education. We would also like to thank the publisher’s reviewer for the constructive comments that were made on the first draft.

In particular, we would like to thank the agency workers and young people who gave up their time to talk to us. Our special thanks go to John, Anita, Holly and James for their interest, support and encouragement.
