MANAGEMENT, WORK AND ORGANISATIONS

Series editors: Gibson Burrell, Warwick Business School
Mick Marchington, Manchester School of Management,
UMIST
Paul Thompson, Department of Human Resource Management,
University of Edinburgh

This series of new textbooks covers the areas of human resource management, employee relations, organisational behaviour and related business and management fields. Each text has been specially commissioned to be written by leading experts in a clear and accessible way. An important feature of the series is the international orientation. The titles will contain serious and challenging material, be analytical rather than prescriptive and be particularly suitable for use by students with no prior specialist knowledge.

The series is relevant for many business and management courses, including MBA and post-experience courses, specialist masters and postgraduate diplomas, professional courses and final-year undergraduate and related courses. The books will become essential reading at business and management schools worldwide.

Acknowledgements

This book draws on research projects undertaken over the last few years. We are grateful for funding and support from the Economic and Social Research Council, the Engineering and Physical Sciences Research Council, the Institute of Personnel and Development, the Employment Department, the Institute of Management and the European Foundation for Quality Management for their support during this period. Adrian Wilkinson is also grateful to Queensland University of Technology for appointing him as a Visiting Fellow at the Centre in Strategic Management.

We are grateful to the following publishers for allowing us to reproduce some material from our earlier published work: Industrial Relations Services, MCB University Press, Carfax Publications, Elsevier Press and the American Society of Quality Control. Various people, including Alan Tuckman and Ruth Holliday, have read parts of the manuscript and we thank them for their comments.

The authors and publishers wish to thank the following for permission to use copyright material: Harvard Business School Publishing for Table 1 from Walton, 'From Control to Commitment in the Workplace', Harvard Business Review, 63, pp. 77–84, March/April 1985; MCB University Press for Figure 2 from Oliver, 'Employee Commitment and Total Quality Control', The International Journal of Quality and Reliability Management, 7, No 1, pp. 21–9, 1990; John Wiley & Sons, Inc. for Figure 3.2 from Fombrun, Tichy and Devanna (eds.), Strategic Human Resource Management, 1984, p. 41.

Every effort has been made to trace all the copyright holders, but if any have been inadvertently overlooked, the publishers will be pleased to make the necessary arrangement at the first opportunity.

Ann Coldicott and Lisa Bourne helped in the word processing of the manuscript and Lisa Bourne also undertook the process of organising the authors. We would like to thank them for their efficiency. As usual, families make the major contribution and we thank them for their support. Finally, our thanks to the series editors, Paul Thompson and Gibson Burrell, and Stephen Rutt and Nicola Young at Macmillan for their patience.
