The texts collected here have been produced and sometimes published elsewhere. 'Collective Consumption and Urban Contradictions in Advanced Capitalism' (written in 1973) was prepared for the International Seminar of the Council for European Studies' held at Monterosso (Italy) in November 1973. 'Urban Crisis, State Policies and the Crisis of the State: the French Experience' (written in 1976) was a contribution to a collective work on the state edited by N. Poulantzas, La crise de l'Etat (Paris: P.U.F., 1976). 'The Social Function of Urban Planning: State Action in the Urban-Industrial Development of the French Northern Coastline' (written in 1974) was part of a larger research project carried out in 1971-3 on the intervention of the state in the industrial and urban planning of Dunkirk. It was published by Recherches sociologiques, Louvain, November 1975. 'Urban Renewal and Social Conflict' (written in 1971) was based on a study carried out in 1970 of Urban renewal in Paris, and was published by Social Sciences Information, 1972. 'The Social Prerequisites for the Upheaval of Urban Social Movements: an Explanatory Study of the Paris Metropolitan Area, 1968-73' (written in 1975) was based on collective research carried out in 1972-4 on urban social movements in the Paris region. It was published by the International Journal of Urban and Regional Research in 1977. 'Ideological Mystification and Social Issues: the Ecological Action Movement in the United States, (written in 1971) was a report for the International Symposium on the Environment, organised by the Museum of Modern Art of New York in January 1972. 'City, Class and Power' (written in 1976) is an essay synthesising the whole of our problematic, and was published by Le Monde Diplomatique in June 1976. We would like to give grateful thanks to those institutions and journals who made possible the production of the articles collected here.

The author and publishers are also particularly grateful to Elizabeth Lebas for her work in translating many parts of the book and for her discerning comments on previously translated parts.
