Acknowledgements

THIS book grew out of lectures to and discussions with my students at the University, Southampton; at Sir George Williams University, Montreal; and at the Institute of Economic Growth, Delhi. My greatest debt is to them.

Dr Sipra Dasgupta and Mr Raghav Gaiha went through the entire manuscript and made helpful criticisms. Miss Bina Aggarwal, Mr Ramesh Bhatia, Dr B. B. Bhattacharya, Dr P. C. Joshi, Dr Gopal Kadekodi, Dr Swapna Mukhopadhyaya, and Mr V. S. Ramachandra read parts of the book and suggested many improvements. Conversations with Dr Pranab Bardhan and Dr Sanjit Bose saved me from some errors. The co-operation and encouragement of Dr A. M. Khusro helped to keep this enterprise alive.

The book was partly written during the summer of 1973, at the Institute of Advanced Studies, Simla. Thanks are due to them for providing a congenial environment in which to write.

Mr Shyam S. Sharma typed several versions of the manuscript with much patience. Mr S. C. Gupta provided research assistance.

All errors that remain are mine alone.
