Focal topics for volumes in the series will include systematic paleontology of all vertebrates (from agnathans to humans), phylogeny reconstruction, functional morphology, paleolithic archaeology, taphonomy, geochronology, historical biogeography, and biostratigraphy. Other fields (e.g., paleoclimatology, paleoecology, ancient DNA, total organismal community structure) may be considered if the volume theme emphasizes paleobiology (or archaeology). Fields such as modeling of physical processes, genetic methodology, nonvertebrates, or neontology are out of our scope.

Volumes in the series may either be monographic treatments (including unpublished but fully revised dissertations) or edited collections, especially those focusing on problem-oriented issues, with multidisciplinary coverage where possible.

Cover Illustration: The photograph is of Nehimba seep in Hwange National Park, Zimbabwe, where bones can be seen from African elephants that died during drought years of the 1990s. The mammoths are overlain drawings made by an unknown graphic artist in the 1970s, based on cave paintings and numerous reconstructions by other artists. Photo and artwork composition by Gary Haynes.
