

PART II

Architectures and Algorithms

The second part of our book discusses standard architectures, algorithms, and techniques to build analytic systems using Hadoop. We also investigate rule-based systems for control, scheduling, and system orchestration and showcase how a rule-based controller can be a natural adjunct to a Hadoop-based analytical system.