To those people who are escaping wars, dictatorships, persecution, economic crisis, famine, climate changes and other difficult living circumstances in search of a new home and a better future;

To the memory of those people who lost their lives while crossing the Mediterranean Sea;

*To the bravery of those people who are trying to rebuild their lives in a new socio-political environment participating actively in the European societies;
To those people who, despite the growth of racism and intolerance in Europe, operate to erode borders and boundaries between nations and social groups, and to fight all forms of discrimination.*
