About the Editors

Bernard Enjolras is a Research Professor at the Institute for Social Research in Oslo. He is Director of the Center for Research on Civil Society and Voluntary Sector. He has been the coordinator of the EU-FP7 project “Third Sector Impact” and Editor-in-Chief of Voluntas International Journal of Voluntary and Nonprofit Organizations (ISTR, Springer), as well as Deputy Director and Research Director at the Institute for Social Research (2006–2014). His research interests are related to different aspects of civil society and the third sector, public policies and governance issues, civic and political engagement, social media and digitalization, terror and trust, and freedom of speech. He holds a Ph.D. in Sociology, from the University of Québec in Montréal (Canada), and a Ph.D. in Economics, from the University of Paris I, Panthéon-Sorbonne (France). He also is a graduate from the Institut d’Etudes Politiques de Paris (Sciences-po).

Kristin Strømsnes holds a Dr. degree in Political Science. She is a Professor at the Department of Comparative Politics, University of Bergen, and Senior Researcher at the Uni Research Rokkan Centre. She was one of the founders of Center for Research on Civil Society and Voluntary Sector in 2008, and functioned as Research Coordinator for the center the first five years. Among her main research interests are political participation and mobilization, voluntary organizations and social capital, as well as the Scandinavian civil society model.
