This book is based on the final report of a study carried out for carried out for the Institute for Prospective Technological Studies (IPTS) of the Joint Research Center (JRC) of the European Commission, on the Internationalisation of European ICT activities. Apart from the efforts made by the authors, the success of this project was made possible through the encouragement and guidelines received from many others. We take this opportunity to express our gratitude to those who helped us in the successful completion of this project.

We would like to thank the staff of IPTS and EC, in particular scientific officers Martin Ulbrich and Geomina Turlea from IPTS, for their support and critical assessment of earlier versions of this final report. The contribution from the team of external experts is greatly appreciated. We would like to thank Tim Kelly from the International Telecommunication Union (ITU), Christian Müller from the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology, Zürich (ETHZ), Hans Lööf from the Royal Institute of Technology (KTH) Stockholm, and Rajneesh Narula from the University of Reading. All accepted our invitation to critically assess earlier versions of this book, their contribution of which was vital for the success of the project. We are grateful for both their support and assistance.

The study was funded by the Institute for Prospective Technological Studies (IPTS, JRC, European Commission) as part of its ongoing work on the Information Society in the European Union (further information is available at: <http://www.jrc.es/>). The opinions expressed are those of the authors only and do not represent the Commission's official position.
