

PART I

PRINCIPLES AND METHODS OF FORCE MEASUREMENT

Galileo: We must measure all that can be measured and we must make measurable all that isn't yet done.

Horatio: There is a measure in all.

Protagoras: Man is the measure of all things.

Carlyle: Force is the measure of any value.