

England

I. Kennedy

Contents

A. Bases of the System of Medical Care	117
I. Ethical Basis of Medical Care	117
II. Private or State-Organised Systems of Medical Care	118
1. Private	118
2. The National Health Service: The State-Organised System of Medical Care	121
III. Number of Doctors in Private Practice, in Clinics and in State Agencies	124
IV. Number of Treatments in Private Practice, Clinics, etc.	125
B. Claims and Court Cases	126
I. Claims	127
II. Kinds of Claim and Cause of Injury	128
III. Average Amount of Claims	128
IV. Settlements	129
V. Cases in Court	129
C. Responsibility for Negligence	131
I. Criminal Responsibility	131
1. Negligence	132
II. Criminal Procedure	134
III. Civil Responsibility	134
1. Contract	134
2. Tort	135
IV. Informed Consent	140
1. Battery	140
2. Negligence	141
V. Causation	144
VI. Burden of Proof	145
VII. Experts	145
VIII. Access to Records	146
IX. Damages	148
X. Limitation Period	152
D. Clinics, Personnel, Equipment	154
I. Need for Guidelines	154
II. Responsibility of the Clinic for Doctors. Vicarious Liability	154
1. Within the National Health Service	155
2. Within Private Medical Care	157
III. Group Liability	157

IV. Responsibility for Medical Equipment	158
E. Insurance Schemes	160
I. Social Insurance Obligation	160
II. Additional Private Insurance	162
III. Pre-emptive Insurance Schemes	162