Acknowledgements

On the completion of this book, I should like to express my deepest gratitude to all my colleagues and students, whose hard work and efforts have made this work possible. Doctor Yan Yilong assisted me in organizing the special study on the ‘Modernization of China’s National Governance’ selected by Research Institute of National Conditions, and acted as one of its authors. My young doctoral students Tang Xiao and Yang Zhusong have been directly involved with the writing, organization of material, research and calculations, editing, and modification, for which they deserve respect.
